Classic Century Powerboats Paul Miklos Frank Miklos Trudi Miklos, Century is a renowned manufacturer of runabout utility and water ski boats Starting out in Milwaukee in 1926 Century continues to be a leader in the powerboat industry today This book traces the company s humble beginnings to market prominence focusing on the wooden hulled inboard and outboard boats built from 1930 to 1968 In the wood era the company offered utilities triple cockpit speedboats and streamlined runabouts that performed exceptionally well against the competition

Ultimate Boat Maintenance Projects Scott Smith, 2004 Boat owners perhaps more so than other motoring enthusiasts want to spend their time playing not maintaining their toys Unfortunately due to their higher exposure to damaging elements their longer periods of non use and the remote locations to which they transport their users it could be argued that boats also require more care than cars or motorcycles This guide breaks down by system the routine maintenance procedures every boat owner should know presenting in more digestible chunks the upkeep of any modern boat whether it s 16 or 60 feet inboard or outboard open hulled or cabin equipped Much of the information included is even applicable to sailboats as well as runabouts and cabin cruisers

Mahogany in Scale , 2007 The classic mahogany runabout is a universally popular modeling subject but many newcomers to the modeling hobby are apprehensive about completing a build Will they be able to fit the planks perfectly And how about the glass smooth clear finish which tolerates no mistakes in woodwork or polishing It s really not so hard just follow the steps outlined here Model boat buff Patrick Matthews covers the entire process from choosing a project from one of the many available kits through building and finishing a mahogany marvel even the basics of Radio Control are covered Additional suggestions are included for simple but effective customizations as well as a gallery of models from some real masters of the craft temptation and encouragement for the modeler to stretch further yet Patrick Matthews shares his enthusiasm for model boats through contributions to Ships in Scale magazine where he covers Radio Control scale model boats In his spare time Patrick is an automotive engineer in Detroit

Herreshoff Sailboats Gregory O. Jones, Herreshoff Sailboats covers some of the major classes of Herreshoff boats including schooners yawls ketches sloops Q R and J class yachts and launches not to mention early steam powered vessels The story begins with John and Charles Herreshoff who founded the boatyard in 1832 The sale of Herreshoff to the Haeffner Corp in the 1920s is also profiled as is the company s decision to close its doors rather than to build fiberglass boats Archival black and white photos illustrate a compellingly written history and modern color photography shows Herreshoff s role in yachting today

Making Waves Scott M Peters,2015-01-22 Michigan will always be known as the automobile capital of the world but the Great Lakes State boasts a similarly rich heritage in the development of boat building in America By the late nineteenth century Michigan had emerged as the industry s hub drawing together the most talented designers builders and engine makers to produce some of the fastest and most innovative boats ever created Within decades gifted Michigan entrepreneurs like Christopher Columbus Smith John L Hacker and Gar Wood had established some of the nation s top boat brands and brought the prospect of boat ownership within reach for American consumers from all ranges of income More than just revolutionizing recreational boating Michigan boat builders also left their mark on history from developing the speedy runabouts favored by illicit rum runners during the Prohibition era to creating the landing craft that carried Allied forces to shores in Europe and the Pacific in WWII In Making Waves Scott M Peters explores this intriguing story of people processes and products of an industry that evolved in Michigan but would change boating across the world
