Androgynous Objects:

Androgynous Objects Maureen Anne MacKenzie, 2019 Androgynous Objects Maureen Anne MacKenzie, 1991 This book explores the way meaning is encoded in material culture by focusing on the androgynous symbolism of the looped string bag or bilum of the Telefol people of Central New Guinea. The web of meanings woven into the bag is shown to extend beyond women's lives and bodies. It is open to manipulation and reformation in a variety of contexts and is used by both Telefol women and men to explore and so explain the complexities and ambiguities inherent in their social life. Handbook of Material Culture Christopher Y. Tilley, 2006-01-26 Provides a critical survey of the theories, concepts, intellectual debates, substantive domains, and traditions of study characterizing the analysis of things. This handbook charts an interdisciplinary field of studies that makes a fundamental contribution to an understanding of what it means to be human. Queer Objects to the Rescue George Paul Meiu, 2023-12-13 Examines forms of intimate citizenship that have emerged in relation to growing anti-homosexual violence in Kenya. Campaigns calling on police and citizens to purge their countries of homosexuality have taken hold across the world. But the homosexual threat they claim to be addressing is not always easy to identify. To make that threat visible, leaders, media, and civil society groups have deployed certain objects as signifiers of queerness. In Kenya, for example, bead necklaces, plastics, and even diapers have come to represent the danger posed by homosexual behavior to an essentially virile construction of national masculinity. In Queer Objects to the Rescue, George Paul Meiu explores objects that have played an important and surprising role in both state-led and popular attempts to rid Kenya of various imagined threats to intimate life. Meiu shows that their use in the political imaginary has been crucial to representing the homosexual body as a societal threat and as a target of outrage, violence, and exclusion, while also crystallizing anxieties over wider political and economic instability. To effectively understand and critique homophobia, Meiu suggests we must take these objects seriously and recognize them as potential sources for new forms of citizenship, intimacy, resistance, and belonging. The Dynamics of Modern Asian Design Sandy Ng, Megha Rajguru, 2025-10-16 Focusing on the late 20th century onward, this book explores how design in material form has underscored cultural, social, and economic changes across Asia. Tides of Innovation in Oceania Elisabetta Gnecci-Ruscione, Anna Painsi, 2017-04-07 Tides of Innovation in Oceania is directly inspired by Epeli Hau'ofa's vision of the Pacific as a Sea of Islands; the image of tides recalls the cyclical movement of waves with its unpredictable consequences. The authors propose tides of innovation as a fluid concept, unbound and open to many directions. This perspective is explored through ethnographic case studies centered on deeply elaborated analyses of locally inflected agencies involved in different transforming contexts. Three interwoven themes—value, materiality, and place—provide a common thread.

Androgynous--The Male-Female in Art and Architecture Gunter Feuerstein, 1997-09-03 Androgyni i kunst og arkitektur Entangled Objects Nicholas Thomas, 1991-10-11 Thomas takes up issues central to modern anthropology: the cultural and political dynamics of colonial encounters, the nature of Western and non-Western transactions, and the significance of material objects in social life He raises doubts about any simple us them dichotomy between Westerners and Pacific Islanders The Gendered Object Pat Kirkham,1996 From Barbie and Action Man to guns via bicycles perfume and trainers The gendered object is an intriguing collection of new writing on the way in which objects of everyday life are made socially acceptable and appropriate for women or men What does the Strawberry Shortcake doll tell us about views of the adult female body When does the necktie become anti establishment How does a woman relate to a washing machine And can a hearing aid really be gendered These questions are answered and many others raised in this entertaining study of design for men and women Guy's Hospital Gazette ,1914 Bulletin of Primitive Technology ,1999 A List of the Objects of Antiquarian Interest in the Lower Provinces of Bengal Bengal,1879 Regional Variation in the Material Culture of Hunter Gatherers Anne Best,2003 The region of Queensland is divided into six areas through drainage divisions something which Anne Best shows to correlate with stylistic differences in objects used by modern hunter gatherers

Transforming Skins Sveinn Eggertsson,2003 The Kwermin people occupy a series of valleys in the Western Province of Papua New Guinea This ethnographic study examines the Kwermin concept of the production of knowledgeable skins or skin like knowledge meaning the acquisition of knowledge that is vital for the growth of the social being Following a discussion of the Kwermin cosmos Eggertsson discusses Kwermin mythology the initiation rituals that men must go through the dangers that face growth such as sorcery and beliefs associated with ancestors and death Pacific Studies ,1998 Hunting Food--drinking Wine International Commission on Anthropology of Food and Food Problems. Congress,2006 Plant Processing from a Prehistoric and Ethnographic Perspective Valérie Beugnier,Philippe Crombé,2007 This bilingual French and English collection of papers by a panel of international scholars springing from a round table held in Ghent in 2006 offers archaeological and ethnographic perspectives on the technical aspects of plant processing to produce string cordage baskets and textiles It focuses on processing and production techniques and the chaîne opératoire In other words the contributions study the entire sequence of processing from raw material selection to manufacture use and discard Prehistoric plant data microwear analysis and other archaeological evidence from Palaeolithic to Neolithic Europe is examined alongside ethnographic studies of contemporary practice in New Guinea and French Guiana Irian ,1999 We Have No Microbes Here Sylvia Wing Önder,2007 Examining traditional metaphors used to describe the body and its suffering this study situates a Turkish Black Sea village community in expanding networks of labor migration and medical technologies as well as within international discourses on science and religion BOOK JACKET Bérétara Susan Cochrane,2001 Today vibrant contemporary cultures are flourishing in the Pacific Islands Instead of mimicking Western culture artists there are leading the way Discover the new art of the Pacific in this wide ranging superbly illustrated book It is produced in association with the new Centre Culturel Tjibaou in New Caledonia

Embracing the Melody of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Androgynous Objects

In a world taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic elegance and mental symphony developed by the written word frequently diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, located within the pages of Androgynous Objects a wonderful fictional prize filled with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, this captivating masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological journey, well unraveling the concealed tunes and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the emotional analysis, we shall investigate the book is key harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
