Send Them Here Geoffrey Cameron, 2021-02-15 The United States and Canada have historically accepted approximately three quarters of resettled refugees leading the world in this key aspect of global refugee protection Between 1945 and 1980 both countries transformed their previous policies of refugee deterrence into expansive resettlement programs Explanations for this shift have typically focused on Cold War foreign policy but there was a domestic force that propelled the rise of resettlement religious groups In Send Them Here Geoffrey Cameron explains the genesis and development of refugee resettlement policy in North America through the lens of the essential role played by faith based organizations Catholic Protestant and Jewish groups led advocacy efforts for refugees after the Second World War and they cooperated with each other and their respective governments to implement the first formal resettlement programs Those policy frameworks laid the foundation for diverging policy trajectories in each country leading ultimately to private sponsorship in Canada and the voluntary agency program in the United States Religious groups remain embedded in the world's most successful refugee resettlement programs Send Them Here draws on a rich archival record and extensive comparative research to contribute new insights to the history of refugee policy human rights and the role of religion in modern policymaking and global humanitarian efforts

Scars of War Sabrina Thomas, 2021-12 Best First Book Award from the History Honor Society Phi Alpha Theta Scars of War examines the decisions of U S policymakers denying the Amerasians of Vietnam the biracial sons and daughters of American fathers and Vietnamese mothers born during the Vietnam War American citizenship Focusing on the implications of the 1982 Amerasian Immigration Act and the 1987 Amerasian Homecoming Act Sabrina Thomas investigates why policymakers deemed a population unfit for American citizenship despite the fact that they had American fathers Thomas argues that the exclusion of citizenship was a component of bigger issues confronting the Nixon Ford Carter and Reagan administrations international relationships in a Cold War era America's defeat in the Vietnam War and a history in the United States of racially restrictive immigration and citizenship policies against mixed race persons and people of Asian descent Now more politically relevant than ever Scars of War explores ideas of race nation and gender in the aftermath of the Vietnam War Thomas exposes the contradictory approach of policymakers unable to reconcile Amerasian biracialism with the U S Code As they created an inclusionary discourse deeming Amerasians worthy of American action guidance and humanitarian aid federal policymakers simultaneously initiated exclusionary policies that designated these people unfit for American citizenship
