God, Help Us! R.J. Chandler Sr, 2017-05-16 God Help Us is an anthology of writings that explore the many challenges of the universal church as it wrestles with its relevancy in a fast paced ever evolving and diverse culture Has the church moved away from the tenets of Christ Many Christians have redefined the Ten Commandments holiness and true faith to suit their personal needs Therefore each chapter in its approach deals with some of the ills of the world that have infiltrated the ranks of the church such as but not limited to mental illness dishonesty sin church hurt misguided leadership narcissism poor fiscal management and sexual indecency Im afraid that each topic has led to the decline of church attendance quieted its prophetic voice in the community and drastically reduced the effectiveness of saving souls This book provides recommendations for going back to our first love which is Jesus and His mission purposeful living balance and wellness It is my hope that this book transcends denominational affiliation and touches each generation to win the world for Christ one soul at a time

Without Absolutes, God Is Not God Ronald A Train, 2013-01-12 Absolutes As a Christian it is foundational I believe to hold to absolutes

For example a Christian should have absolutes about Gods ontology the principle of being absolutes about theology the study of God absolutes about Christology the study of Christ and absolutes about pneumatology the study of the Holy Spirit Each of the foregoing absolutes I believe impact upon how one constructs a world view and how one considers the wider implications of Gods kingdom work hence why I have titled this collection of essays Without absolutes God is not God I guess the reader will be asking him or herself why is there a requirement to hold to absolutes The need for absolutes is not complex In reality the argument determines whether one is a believer or non believer in the triune God A believer will weigh whether God revelationally speaks into this world generally and specifically A non believer will object to such a proposition and as a consequence leave him or herself open to other belief systems To perhaps put it another way a non believer is faced with the choice of deciding whether God is a reality or whether God is a creation of human imagination Decision making then is crucial when accepting the triune God and his work Does one make a decision to believe in God empirically or does one make a decision to believe in God from a position of faith It is my view that God cannot be known empirically i e by trial or experience but rather he can only be known by faith However it depends on how we define faith Those who accept other belief systems would argue that they too have a faith or a belief in some god or person In the Christian context however faith is an action based on the accepted evidence In other words if one accepts that the written word of God is substantially true 2 Peter 1 20 21 and that the Word of God Jesus of Nazareth is who he is recorded as being or is who he claims to be John 1 1 5 14 6 7 then faith is given substance But I would go further and argue that authentic faith is derived from a spiritual encounter with God which then enables the recipients faith response to be one which is prompted or ignited by God My argument is supported from Scripture 1 Corinthians 12 9 Ephesians 2 8 9 and from personal experience Both of the foregoing references I suggest argue that faith is a gift which has its origin in God Hence faith is not only prompted by God but also sustained by him The analysis of such faith is that it is revelatory and constitutes an utter reliance on who God is and why he exists Revelatory Faith Evangelicals argue that faith is a gift from God However this argument is treated with caution by others Existentialism suggests that faith is made possible and so granted by the gracious approach and self disclosure of being Interestingly at this point there is no great variance between the latter perspective and Martin Luther who argued that faith originates with or is at least aroused by God Contemplating the third article of the Apostles Creed he wrote I believe that I cannot of my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord or come to him But the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel enlightened me with His gifts sanctified and kept me in the true faith Modernists also argue that faith constitutes a persons response but only after having been drawn to Gods work of salvation This argument suggests faith to be an a priori act of God an act that prompts recognition that in the Christ God is endeavouring to share his own life This arousal of faith then affects worship praise and prayer and the practise of Christian discipleship The same argument suggests further that the prior love of God and the response of love that it generates are what shape a persons Christian faith Biblical support for these theological reflections is found in Ephesians The Christian's Vital Breath Ralph I Tilley, Dr,2014-01-19 A praying person is an awful weapon in the hands of God Prayer believing Spirit directed truth based prayer glorifies God exalts the Lord Jesus Christ honors the blessed Holy Spirit and builds the church up the way Christ intends it to be built True praying is as necessary to the growth of the Christian and the church as breathing is to the life and health of the human body Because this is so Scottish Moravian hymn writer James Montgomery 1771 1854 wrote Prayer is the Christian s vital breath the Christian s native air God s authentic people have always been praying people following the supreme example of the Lord Jesus Great works of God have been built through the intercessions of God s servants God s work always moves forward most effectively when the people of God are on their knees as much as they are in business meetings The church s wise men have always known the importance of prayer The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much James 5 16 NASB Most of the following chapters originally appeared in Life in the Spirit Journal They are written by a variety of authors including this editor How I thank God that the Lord Jesus has shown us the way of prayer as well as many noble saints who have walked in his footsteps Light from Light Louis K. Dupré,James A. Wiseman,2001 In this revised edition of a longtime bestselling anthology of Christian mysticism editors Louis Dupre and James Wiseman bring together selections from the writings of twenty three of the most important Christian mystics from Origen of Alexandria in the third century to Thomas Merton in the twentieth This edition retains most of the authors included in the first addition but has replaced some authors from that edition with ones that will be of greater interest to readers today e g Francis and Clare of Assisi Francis de Sales and Jane de Chantal and Evelyn Underhill A general introduction discusses the place of mysticism within the Christian life as a whole while individual chapter introductions place the mystical writers in their historical context and relate their works to others in the anthology In addition the editors have completely updated the bibliographies at the end of each chapter Students and teachers of spirituality as well as persons interested in their own spiritual growth will welcome this popular revised resource because it makes readily available in one volume major works by important Christian mystical writers Like its predecessor it is sure to be welcomed in the academic world and spiritual and devotional circles The Sacred Anthology Moncure Daniel Conway,1874
