Fleming, 2014-06-16 In the heart of the Hamptons located on the South Fork of eastern Long Island is the community of Hampton Bays which was founded long ago as Good Ground As the name implies the area was settled because of the fertile land and the plentiful fish and shellfish found in the surrounding bays and inlets Today the hamlet is a popular vacation spot with some of the most renowned beaches on the south shore Hampton Bays features images that document the changing nature of the community and its eventual conversion from a farming village to a popular summer resort
