A Day's Ride: A Life's Romance Charles James Lever, It has been said that any man no matter how small and insignificant the post he may have filled in life who will faithfully record the events in which he has borne a share even though incapable of himself deriving profit from the lessons he has learned may still be of use to others sometimes a guide sometimes a warning I hope this is true I like to think it so for I like to think that even I A S P if I cannot adorn a tale may at least point a moral Certain families are remarkable for the way in which peculiar gifts have been transmitted for ages Some have been great in arms some in letters some in statecraft displaying in successive generations the same high qualities which had won their first renown In an humble fashion I may lay claim to belong to this category My ancestors have been apothecaries for one hundred and forty odd years Joseph Potts drug and condiment man lived in the reign of Queen Anne at Lower Liffey Street No 87 and to be remembered passingly has the name of Mr Addison amongst his clients the illustrious writer having as it would appear a peculiar fondness for Pott's linature whatever that may have been for the secret died out with my distinguished forefather There was Michael Joseph Potts licensed for chemicals in Mary's Abbey about thirty years later and so we come on to Paul Potts and Son and then to Launcelot Peter Potts Pharmaceutical Chemist to his Excellency and the Irish Court the father of him who now bespeaks your indulgence My father's great misfortune in life was the ambition to rise
