Global Security Watch—Iran

Thomas R. Mattair, 2008-06-30 This book explains the foreign policy decisions of Iranian leaders as well as the foreign policy decisions of its neighbors and major world powers Iran is not treated primarily as a problem to be dealt with by the United States and its friends There is an effort to understand not only the concerns and policies of the United States and its allies but also to understand Iranian concerns and policy Thus this book is better able than many others to explain the actions reactions and interactions of all the relevant actors and to explore the prospects for future war or peace Mattair provides a comprehensive analysis of Iran's relations with its neighbors and major world powers He begins with a review of Iran's foreign relations from the time of Iran's founding in the 5th century B.C. through the Islamic era beginning in the mid 600s A.D. and the native dynasties that ruled in more recent centuries as Iran faced challenges from foreign powers such as the Ottoman Empire and Western colonial empires The rule of Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi from 1941 until 1979 is analyzed in detail covering his efforts to deter aggression by the Soviet Union forge an alliance with the United States assert Iran's power in the Persian Gulf and exercise Iran's economic power particularly through its oil wealth The bulk of the book however focuses on the foreign relations of the Islamic Republic of Iran since 1979 during the time in which Ayatollah Khomeini and his successors have ruled The reasons for Iran's early revolutionary activism its antagonism toward the United States and Israel and its war with Iraq from 1980 to 1988 are carefully examined The reasons for international efforts to contain Iran particularly efforts by the United States are also analyzed Iran's more pragmatic policies are explained as well including its close relations with Russia and China its efforts to repair relations with Saudi Arabia and the other Arab states of the Gulf its cooperation with U S efforts to topple the Taliban in Afghanistan after September 11 2001 and its offer of comprehensive negotiations with the United States in May 2003 Finally Mattair analyzes the current global debate about whether diplomacy sanctions or military action are appropriate responses to Iran s nuclear programs its role in Iraq and the Persian Gulf and its resistance to Israel The New Dogs of War Ward Thomas,2021-09-15 As Ward Thomas details in The New Dogs of War militias and paramilitary groups wield greater power than national governments in many countries while in some war zones private contractors perform missions previously reserved for uniformed troops Most ominously terrorist organizations with global reach have come to define the security landscape for even the most powerful nations Across the first decades of the twenty first century we have witnessed a dramatic rise in the use of military force by these nonstate actors in ways that have impacted the international system leading Thomas to undertake this valuable assessment of the state of play at this critical moment To understand the spread of nonstate violence Thomas focuses on the crucial role played by an epochal transformation in international norms Since the eighteenth century the Westphalian model of sovereignty has reserved the legitimate use of force to states Thomas argues that normative changes in the decades after World War II produced a crisis of coherence for formal and informal rules against nonstate violence In detailed case studies of nonstate militias transnational terrorist networks and private military contractors Thomas explains how forces contesting state prerogatives exploited this crisis which in turn reshaped international understandings of who could legitimately use force By considering for the first time all three purveyors of nonstate violence as aspects of the same phenomenon The New Dogs of War explains this fundamental shift in the norm that for centuries gave states the monopoly on military force Will it All be the Same? Jenkin Lloyd Jones,1896 Nuclear Times ,1992 New People ,2000 Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce,1928 Conragate Alert ,1987 Science Experiments Tammy K.
