Another Time, Another Place Gordon E. Jenkins, 2003-05-07 Two young people one white and one deemed black products of their environment separated by the rigid inhumane caste system of the Jim Crow South meet by chance bond and begin a forbidden relationship which nurtures and grows even when they attempt to terminate it knowing the potential consequences if they are discovered As they secretly flaunt the laws and traditions of the day they aggressively pursue their individual ambitions to escape the equally binding economic shackles As their commitment to each other becomes stronger they become bolder and challenge the status quo in ways that cannot be ignored by the power structure Their actions coupled with fate trigger unforeseen events with tragic consequences
