

Reading Pennsylvania.

Taken Sept 1857.

Although an entire stranger to you and we have never been each other, yet as you are a first cousin to my dear father, please allow me to address you as Dea. Friend.

I did not go into Duplein when I was in England last summer, as we did not meet, but should I ever visit England again I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you and your father, relatives and good friends that meet.

— As regards to my dear father's request of you to induce your craft for S. S. O., which was our contribution towards the support of our dear City by his influence in America. It has been my little comfort that his great eye may revive and that she might not be a mere fiction. Although I have no doubt you and your family are very kind and have got an father's thought his influence in America might be help the too. It is our purpose to continue these contributions from time to time as long as the poor man the lady lives. And as we know you to be the kindest friend she has, we often think and think to you. My father's Mother has gone off on a two years voyage around the
