Amrita Amrit Madhav Ghatage,2000 Amrita Amrit Madhav Ghatage,2000 Early Sources of the Jaina Tradition Bansidhar Bhatt,2025-11-18 Early Sources of the Jaina Tradition reconstructs the history of the early Jaina tradition through a close study of the available textual sources It focuses on P r van tha one of the 24 Jinas that are identified by the Jaina tradition as its main religious leaders of the current time cycle It is a commonly accepted hypothesis of nineteenth century scholarship that P r van tha the 23rd Jina is a historical figure whose teachings were slightly modified by Mah v ra the 24th Jina The book challenges this hypothesis by analysing a wide range of textual sources some of which have never been examined in the academic literature The author shows that the teachings and narratives associated with P r van tha are the result of a construction related to a reform movement sometime after Mah v ra The work included a re assessment of key terms and concepts of the early Jaina texts and Jaina chronology Presenting an innovative analysis and a new interpretation of Jaina sources this work is an invaluable contribution to studies of South Asian History and Religion
