Lancaster, 2019-03-07 The cinematographer must translate the ideas and emotions contained in a script into something that can be physically seen and felt onscreen helping the director to fulfil the vision of the film The shots may look good but they will not serve the story until the composition lenses and lighting express enhance and reveal the underlying emotions and subtext of the story By making physical the ideas and emotions of the story the cinematographer supports blocking as a visual form of the story through these tools Rather than delve into technical training Basic Cinematography helps to train the eye and heart of cinematographers as visual storytellers providing them with a strong foundation for their work so that they re ready with creative ideas and choices on set in order to make compelling images that support the story The book includes tools tables and worksheets on how to enhance students and experienced filmmakers with strong visual storytelling possibilities including such features as Dramatic script analysis that will help unlock blocking composition and lighting ideas that reveal the visual story Ten tools of composition Psychological impact of lenses shot sizes and camera movement Six elements of lighting for visual storytelling What to look for beneath the hood of cameras including using camera log RAW and LUTs Dramatic analysis chart and scene composition chart to help plan your shoots Case studies from such visually cinematic shows and documentaries as Netflix s Godless Jessica Jones The Crown and Chef s Table as well as examples from classroom exercises Features insights from the DP of Jessica Jones Manuel Billeter and the DP of Chef s Table Adam Bricker

Handbook of University-wide Entrepreneurship Education G. Page West, Elizabeth J. Gatewood, Kelly G. Shaver, 2009-01-01 this Handbook is inspiring It is designed to assist educators in developing new programmes and pedagogical approaches based upon the previous experiences of others who have forged this exciting new path I recommend it highly for the inspired as well as for the disillusioned entrepreneurship educator Howard H Frederick Journal of Educational Administration and History This Handbook explores the current state of university wide entrepreneurship education programs and provides a comprehensive reference guide for the planning and implementation of an entrepreneurship curriculum beyond the business school environment A variety of authors spanning five countries and multiple disciplines discuss the opportunities and universal challenges in extending entrepreneurship education to the sciences performing arts social sciences humanities and liberal arts environments The Handbook is designed to assist educators in developing new programs and pedagogical approaches based upon the previous experiences of others who have forged this exciting new path Sections of the Handbook are devoted to philosophies and theory that provide a legitimate intellectual foundation for the fusion of entrepreneurship education with other traditional disciplines of the university the politics and process of implementing entrepreneurship initiatives outside business schools and examples of approaches to implementing entrepreneurship education outside business schools The book identifies expected problems and solutions for new entrepreneurship curriculum development It offers theory on education pedagogy that is critical to addressing concerns of non business educators and provides examples of successful efforts in a variety of non business departments Entrepreneurship faculty across disciplines and graduate students seeking ways to broaden involvement in entrepreneurship curriculum will find this volume invaluable as will school administrators both in business and in the arts and sciences

Latsploitation, Exploitation Cinemas, and Latin America Victoria Ruétalo,Dolores Tierney,2009-05-07 Exploring the much neglected area of Latin American exploitation cinema this anthology challenges established continental and national histories and canons which often exclude exploitation cinema due to its perceived low cultural status It argues that Latin American exploitation cinema makes an important aesthetic and social contribution to the larger body of Latin American cinema often competing with Hollywood and more mainstream national cinemas in terms of popularity Basic
