

Basil Hall Chamberlain Things Japanese (1890)

Hiromi Kawashima

Basil Hall Chamberlain

Basil Hall Chamberlain was born in 1850, in Southsea in the naval port of Portsmouth. The Chamberlain family was a prestigious family with ties to the Royal Navy; his father was a rear admiral in the Navy and his mother was also from an old-established family. His maternal grandfather was Captain Basil Hall, a naval captain known for his surveys of the coasts of Korea and the Ryukyu Islands. At the age of eight, his mother died, and he and his two younger brothers were raised by their grandmother in Versailles, where they attended high school (lycée). At the age of 17, he spent a year in Spain, but due to his physical ailments, he decided not to go to university. He resigned from a bank where he had been working, and spent about 3 years in Malta and other parts of Europe. He came to Japan in May 1873 (Meiji 6) at the age of 22, and the next year he was taken on as a tutor in the Japanese Naval
