

THE PROBLEMS OF COMMERCIALIZATION IN THE TROPICAL DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

Abstract

The author discusses the problems of commercialization in the tropical developing countries.

Commercialization is a process which involves the transfer of technology from the laboratory to the marketplace. In the tropical developing countries, the process of commercialization is often hindered by a number of factors. These factors include a lack of capital, a lack of managerial expertise, and a lack of government support. The author discusses the problems of commercialization in the tropical developing countries and suggests some ways in which these problems might be solved.

The author discusses the problems of commercialization in the tropical developing countries. He suggests that the government should provide financial support for commercialization, that the private sector should be encouraged to invest in commercialization, and that the government should provide technical assistance to the private sector. The author also suggests that the government should provide training for managers and that the government should provide information on commercialization opportunities.

Civilizational Process:

The Civilizing Process Norbert Elias, 1978 The Civilizing Process stands out as Norbert Elias greatest work tracing the civilizing of manners and personality in Western Europe since the Middle Ages and showing how this was related to the formation of states and the monopolization of power within them It comprises the two volumes originally published in English as The History of Manners and State Formation and Civilization now in a single volume the book is restored to its original format and made available world wide to a new generation of readers In this new edition the original text is extensively revised corrected and updated The Revised Edition reveals anew and afresh the greatness of Elias masterpiece The Civilizational Process Darcy Ribeiro, 1971 Rethinking Civilizational Analysis Said Amir Arjomand, Edward A Tiryakian, 2004-06-09 At last a volume on civilization that truly reflects the complexity of multiple civilizations The wealth of contributions Arjomand and Tiryakian have assembled demonstrates the value of an old concept for understanding the awful dilemmas confronting human kind in the global age Its thoroughgoing renewal here establishes this book as the essential benchmark for future scholars of civilization Martin Albrow Founding Editor of International Sociology and author of The Global Age winner of the European Amalfi Prize 1997 In our tension filled world many are heralding and others fearing a clash of civilizations The contributors to this volume provides a healthy and persuasive argument about why this clash need not and certainly should not take place They do so moreover not by rejecting the concept of civilization but by developing a less primordial homogenous and essentialist concept of it An important collection that provides illumination in this sometimes frighteningly dark time Jeffrey Alexander Professor and Chair of Sociology at Yale University The concept of civilization may well replace the notions of globalization and identity as the core component in the vocabulary of 21st century sociology The authors contribute a great deal to the clarification of fashionable controversies around the clash of civilizations and multiculturalism They go a long way toward purging the concept of civilization of its ideological overtones and they succeed admirably in turning it into powerful analytic tool of an emerging field of macrosociology known already as civilizational analysis Piotr Sztompka President International Sociological Association Although the concept of civilization has deep roots in the social sciences there is an urgent need to re think it for contemporary times This book points to an exhaustion in using the nation state and world system as the basic macro units of social analysis because they do not get to grips with the soft power variable of cultural factors involved in global aspects of development Also globalization requires us to reconsider the link between civilization and a fixed or given territory This book focuses upon the dynamic aspect of civilizations Among the topics covered are Civilizational analysis and social theory Global civilization and local cultures Civilizational forms Rationalization and Civilization Civilizations as zones of prestige Historical and comparative dimensions of civilization The clash of civilizations The American Civilizing Process Stephen Mennell, 2013-04-24 Since 9 11 the American government has presumed to speak and act in the name of civilization But isthat how the rest of the world sees it

And if not why not Stephen Mennell leads up to such contemporary questions through a careful study of the whole span of American development from the first settlers to the American Empire He takes a novel approach analysing the USA s experience in the light of Norbert Elias s theory of civilizing and decivilizing processes Drawing comparisons between the USA and other countries of the world the topics discussed include American manners and lifestyles Violence in American society The impact of markets on American social character American expansion from the frontier to empire The curse of the American Dream and increasing inequality The religiosity of American life Mennell shows how the long term experience of Americans has been of growing more and more powerful in relation to their neighbours This has had all pervasive effects on the way they see themselves their perception of the rest of the world and how the rest of the world sees them Mennell s compelling and provocative account will appeal to anyone concerned about America s role in the world today including students and scholars of American politics and society The Civilizing Process Norbert Elias,2000-07-13 The Civilizing Process stands out as Norbert Elias greatest work tracing the civilizing of manners and personality in Western Europe since the late Middle Ages by demonstrating how the formation of states and the monopolization of power within them changed Western society forever Classical Readings on Culture and Civilization Stephen Mennell,2017-10-03 In recent times especially under the influence of postmodernism culture has often been construed as a critique of modernity This wide ranging and comprehensive collection of readings shows that such issues have always been at the centre of thought about the relationship between culture and civilization The readings are divided into three sections linking the civilization debate to political theory to the cultural debate and to the sociology and anthropology The substantial extracts included give students a rare chance to engage at length with classic texts to appreciate the nature of the battle between the Enlightenment and its critics which has shaped current thought Classical Readings on Culture and Civilisation presents essays from Immanuel Kant Adam Ferguson Thomas Jefferson Alexis de Tocqueville Friedrich von Schiller Friedrich Nietzsche Georg Simmel Thomas Mann Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim Marcel Mauss Lucien Febvre Alfred Weber Robert E Park and Norbert Elias

Understanding the geocivilizational aspect in the West Ahmed Sarirete,2020-11-11 The international consensus built around the Western model and its civilizational approach in recent decades has not been long in showing signs of fragility in the face of structural crises induced by the push for unfair globalization The doubts that are aroused by the not very reassuring management of this project of globalization and major global crises such as the global Covid 19 pandemic which has taken hold of all nations nevertheless deserve a pause for deep reflection to better understand this unprecedented situation in human history In this essay I make my significant contribution in understanding the new process of human civilization which has become a unique model for all contemporary nations according to my geocivilizational approach and offer a lucid and serene look at the historical causes of the leadership of Westerners Fundamentals of Culture-sociology, Social Process, Civilizational Process and Culture-movement Alfred Weber,1939 The

On the Process of Civilisation in Japan Wai Lau,2022-11-03 Winner of the Norbert Elias Book Prize 2023 This book charts the process of civilisation in Japan Using the theory of civilising processes developed by Norbert Elias the author examines the complex underlying structural and psychological processes from the seventh century to the twentieth century Furthermore by drawing on rich historical data the author illustrates how these complex processes led the Japanese to see themselves as more civilised than their forebears and neighbouring countries Although the theory serves as an important reference point the author draws on other works to address different complex questions surrounding Japanese development Therefore this book presents three key themes first it gives an alternative understanding of the complex developments of Japanese society second it intercedes into an ongoing debate about the applicability of Elias s theory in a non Western context and third it expands Elias s theory The Dialogist ,1970 Bulletin of the School of Education, Indiana University ,1930 Vol 1 7 9 10 include Proceedings of the High School Principals Conference 1923 1929 v 1 7 9 18 include Proceedings of the Conference on Educational Measurements 1924 1930 1932 1942 Comparative Civilizations Review ,2003 The Civilizing Process Norbert Elias,1982 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles: part 1.
