Common Measures Joseph Albernaz,2024-08-20 What happens to the experience of community when the grounds of communal life collapse The Romantic period s upheaval cast both traditional communal organizations of life and outgrowths of the new revolutionary age into crisis In this context Joseph Albernaz argues that Romantic writers articulate a vital conception of groundless community while following this idea through its aesthetic ecological political and philosophical registers into the present Amidst the violent expropriation of the commons Romantic writers including the Wordsworths Clare H Iderlin and the revolutionary abolitionist Robert Wedderburn reimagined the forms of their own lives through literature to conceive community as groundless a disposition toward radically open forms of sharing including with nonhuman beings without recourse to any collective identity Both a poetics and ethics groundless community names an everyday sociality that surges beneath and against the enclosures of property and identity binding us to the movements of the earth Unearthing Romanticism s intersections with the history of communism and the general strike Albernaz also demonstrates how Romantic literature s communal imagination reverberates through later theories of community in Bataille Derrida Nancy Moten and others With sharp close readings new historical constellations and innovative theoretical paradigms Common Measures recasts the relationship of the Romantic period to the basic terms of modernity The Bolsheviks Adam Bruno ULAM,Adam Bruno Ulam,2009-06-30 The rise of the Bolsheviks is an epic Russian story that now has a definitive end The major historian of the subject Adam Ulam has enlarged his classic work with a new Preface that puts the revolutionary moment and especially Lenin in perspective for our modern age Catholic Reading Circle Review ,1897 Circle ,1908 The Circle of the Year William Henry Davenport Adams,1872 Ford's Christian Repository & Home Circle ,1889 The Circle of Knowledge Henry Woldmar Ruoff,1919 Family Circles ,1992 The Brotherhood ,1903 The Catholic Reading Circle Review ,1898 The Deep Things of God William Bathgate,1876 The Charmed Circle Edward Alden Jewell,1921 Sermons and Lectures William Elbert Munsey,1878 The Common-sense Philosophy of Spirit Or Psychology Charles Henery Foster,1901 Until the Day Break Robert Burns Wilson,1900 The Church Circle Andrew Morton,1871 The Student's Journal ,1916 The Ante-Nicene Fathers Alexander Roberts,1888 Crop Circles Mary Carroll Nelson,2007 Since the late 1970s crop circles have been appearing in grain fields all across the globe but especially in Southern England These large graphic designs are created through the contrast between the light catching flattened grain swirled to the ground and the darker grain left standing in the fields The beauty of the art can be seen in its entirety from the air and such space filling dynamic patterns are evidence that creative intelligent CircleMakers are intentionally marking the Earth But why they do it and who they are remain mysteries In Crop Circles Mary Nelson speculates on possible answers to these questions Nelson takes the view that crop circles are a new art form The record of civilization can be read through a study of art history Today CircleMakers are using land as a canvas She asks what do crop circles reveal about our own period Are these huge artworks alerting us to increase our awareness to follow an elevated path more spiritual and less material more in harmony and less adversarial more of a circle than a box so that humanity can at last fulfill its evolutionary destiny instead of destroying itself In Crop Circles Nelson combines the viewpoint of an art historian with that of artist and seeker to probe the connection between the crop formations and developments in contemporary thought There is also a special hardcover edition available with a linen slipcase and accompanied by original artwork by Mary Carroll Nelson *Addresses at the Inauguration of Allen R.
