Circus Days:

Circus Life Micah D. Childress, 2026-10-25 The nineteenth century saw the American circus move from a reviled and rejected form of entertainment to the Greatest Show on Earth Circus Life by Micah D Childress looks at this transition from the perspective of the people who owned and worked in circuses and how they responded to the new incentives that rapid industrialization made possible The circus has long been a subject of fascination for many as evidenced by the millions of Americans that have attended circus performances over many decades since 1870 when the circus established itself as a truly unique entertainment enterprise Yet the few analyses of the circus that do exist have only examined the circus as its own closed microcosm the circus family Circus Life on the other hand places circus employees in the larger context of the history of US workers and corporate America Focusing on the circus as a business entertainment venture Childress pushes the scholarship on circuses to new depths examining the performers managers and laborers lives and how the circus evolved as it grew in popularity over time Beginning with circuses in the antebellum era Childress examines changes in circuses as gender balances shifted industrialization influenced the nature of shows and customers and crowds became increasingly more middle class As a study in sport and social history Childress s account demonstrates how the itinerant nature of the circus drew specific types of workers and performers and how the circus was internally in constant upheaval due to the changing profile of its patrons and a changing economy Circus Days, 1975 A photographic documentation of the Beatty Cole Circus recording and portraying the customs activities animals and singular personalities of an endangered way of life

Primary Plans Elizabeth P. Bemis, 1911 Allentown Ann Bartholomew, Carol M. Front, 2002 Allentown the Queen City of the Lehigh Valley is the youngest but largest of the three cities in the valley Founded in 1762 by William Allen it was little more than a crossroads and small market town along the Lehigh River until it became the county seat in 1812 Heavy industries based on iron developed in the mid eighteenth century along the Lehigh River and by the 1860s Allentown had become the largest community in the Lehigh Valley In 1867 Allentown became a city In Allentown readers nostalgic for times past will find photographs showing the places they remember from years ago the Pennsylvania Power Light tower and the effects of the devastating floods on the Lehigh River Equally newcomers who have heard about the great department stores of Hamilton Street the trolley systems Central Park the breweries and the iron and silk industries will treasure the images in this volume Many places that still exist are shown in Allentown as they appeared in their earlier days Perusing these pages will evoke memories and will provide opportunities for parents and grandparents to introduce a younger generation to the city as it was in their youth Circus Days and Nights Robert Lax, 2009-06-02 Though many hold him to be one of the greatest American poets of this century Lax has maintained a low profile living and writing in seclusion on the Greek island of Patmos In Circus Days Nights Lax s three great long poems on the circus Circus of the Sun Mogador s Book and Sunset City are collected together for the first time placing this early masterwork in the position within American literature that it so richly deserves Each of the three poems in this collection expresses a reverence for the acts of daring beauty and grace that make the circus the singular event it is What also emerges is the drawing of a link between this world of the circus wherein a tent is erected acts are performed and then the tent is disassembled only to be re erected the next day and Lax s faith As Denise Levertov has said the radiant security of Lax s faith appears in his work as a serenity of tone Memory Days Alexander Sterret Paxton,1908 Exhibitors Daily Review ,1923 With Happiness to You James William Foley,1928 Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1921 The Century Josiah Gilbert Holland,Richard Watson Gilder,1924 Light ,1925 The United States Catalog Mary Burnham,Carol Hurd,1928 Old Days on the Farm A. C. Wood,1918 Old Wagon Show Days Gil Robinson,1925 Argosy All-story Weekly ,1929 The Juggler of Notre Dame and the Medievalizing of Modernity Jan M. Ziolkowski,2018-12-12 This ambitious and vivid study in six volumes explores the journey of a single electrifying story from its first incarnation in a medieval French poem through its prolific rebirth in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Juggler of Notre Dame tells how an entertainer abandons the world to join a monastery but is suspected of blasphemy after dancing his devotion before a statue of the Madonna in the crypt he is saved when the statue delighted by his skill miraculously comes to life Jan Ziolkowski tracks the poem from its medieval roots to its rediscovery in late nineteenth century Paris before its translation into English in Britain and the United States The visual influence of the tale on Gothic revivalism and vice versa in America is carefully documented with lavish and inventive illustrations and Ziolkowski concludes with an examination of the explosion of interest in The Juggler of Notre Dame in the twentieth century and its place in mass culture today In this concluding volume Ziolkowski explores the popularity of The Juggler of Notre Dame from the 1930s through the Second World War especially in the Allied Resistance Its popularity in the United States was subsequently maintained by figures as diverse as Tony Curtis and W H Auden and although recently the story and medievalism have lost ground the future of both holds promise Presented with great clarity and simplicity Ziolkowski s work is accessible to the general reader while its many new discoveries will be valuable to academics in such fields and disciplines as medieval studies medievalism philology literary history art history folklore performance studies and reception studies I love you truly Carrie Jacobs-Bond,1901 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1922 The Film Renter and Moving Picture News ,1923 Empire Forester ,1920
