English Language Learners presents practical instructional strategies for engaging learners that can be incorporated as a regular part of instruction. The authors offer context specific strategies for everything from facilitating classroom discussions with all students to reading and interpreting math textbooks to tackling word problems. A fully annotated list of math web and print resources completes the volume making this a valuable reference to help mathematics teachers meet the challenges of including all learners in effective instruction. Features and updates to this new edition include: An updated and streamlined Part 1 provides an essential overview of ELL theory in a mathematics specific context. Additional practical examples of mathematics problems and exercises make turning theory into practice easy when teaching ELLs. New pedagogical elements in Part 3 include tips on harnessing new technologies, discussion questions and reflection points. New coverage of the Common Core State Standards as well as updates to the web and print resources in Part 4.

Red Book, 1986-11 The magazine for young adults varies Parents, 1987 Stories on the Move Arlene Cohen, 2007-05-30 Energize your story programs by infusing them with the power of movement. This guide offers you dozens of interactive ready to use age appropriate and story based activities that get children actively involved in learning. Designed to expand the child's self awareness, range of expression and aesthetic sensibility at particular stages of development from infancy to puberty, these literature based programs are simple enough to be used by any educator even if you have little or no dance experience. Included for each program are learning goals, skill development, a literature story connection and detailed instructions for movement and vocal improvisation and creative dramatics. A great resource for after school programs, home schools and daycare centers. Ages Infant-14.

Stories on the Move develops a child's emergent cultural and interpretative literacy skills. The first three chapters for babies, toddlers and preschoolers are based on nationally recognized standards and methods for tapping emergent literacy skills. The fourth chapter takes children on StoryTrips to other countries and includes language stories, dances and customs of those countries. The fifth and sixth chapters for older children show them how to interpret story structure and the elements of character, setting, mood, plot and theme. Included for each program are learning goals, skill development, a literature story connection and detailed instructions for movement and vocal improvisation and creative dramatics. A great resource for after school programs, home schools and daycare centers. Ages Infant-14.

Good Housekeeping, 1987 Bug Dance Stuart J. Murphy, 2001-12-18 The bugs in Coach Caterpillar's gym class are learning a new dance. But Centipede can't do it. If he can't learn the directions left, right, forward and backward, this class will be one big FLOP.

Racing Around Stuart J. Murphy, 2001-12-18 It's a long way around Perimeter Path. Mike's brother and sister say he's too young to compete in the 15 kilometer bike race. But if Mike just gets a chance, he knows he can make it all the way around.

It's About Time! Stuart J. Murphy, 2005-03-01 It's About Time to wake up, to learn to play, to read, to cuddle up in the blankets and to dream. A twenty-four hour day is full of great things to do. Endearing illustrations depicting things kids do every day make this an easy introduction to the skill of telling time, perfect for very young readers. Safari Park Stuart J.
