Beginning Teaching, Beginning Learning: In Early Years And Primary Education Moyles, Janet, Georgeson, Jan, Payler, Jane, 2011-08-01 This collection provides an introduction to the practical skills which all student teachers have to develop as well as celebrating the unpredictability and excitement of working with interested and inquisitive children

Beginning Teaching, Beginning Learning Janet Moyles, Gillian Robinson, 2002-03 Reviews of the first edition Janet Moyles's carefully and imaginatively edited book will be of great interest to a wide educational community This is more than a handbook for students and their tutors it is a manifest of the dedicated and closely focused professionalism of the University of Leicester team and I am sure that it will still be being read in ten years time by all concerned with primary education Mentoring and Tutoring How can new primary teachers not only survive but enjoy their chosen career What can newly qualified and student teachers do to recognize and address the many complexities of primary teaching What are the issues which continually challenge both new and experienced teachers The second edition of this successful text sets out to explore some of the wider issues surrounding work with children in the 3-11 years age range and considers how these are woven into the broad framework of teaching and teachers own learning Cameos and examples of classroom practice help to illustrate the aspects of teaching what it is to be an effective and competent teacher classroom processes such as planning observation and assessment the variety of ways in which children learn and develop thinking skills through various curriculum areas including ICT equal opportunities and special needs issues in loco parentis responsibilities and reflective approaches to teaching Written in an accessible style the aim throughout is to offer guidance and encouragement in the challenging and complex task of early years and primary teaching Comprehensively revised and updated throughout this second edition produced by colleagues from Anglia Polytechnic University and University of Leicester discusses teaching and learning in the context of recent initiatives such as the Foundation Stage the Literacy Hour the induction year for newly qualified teachers and the growth and development of ICT It will be an essential text for all students and newly qualified primary teachers

Beginning Teaching, Beginning Learning Janet Moyles, 2007-07-01 This collection provides an excellent introduction to the practical skills which all student teachers have to develop but it also celebrates the unpredictability and excitement of working with interested inquisitive children It should inspire readers to see teaching in universities as well as in classrooms as the promotion of lively conversations between learners Rod Parker Rees University of Plymouth The second edition was invaluable and this is even better Yvonne Yule University of Aberdeen The third edition of this highly successful text sets out to explore some of the wider issues to be investigated by beginning teachers and those who support them when working with early years and primary age children while at the same time exploring some of the delight and enjoyment in the teaching role The book is organised into four parts Early Beginnings Beginning to Understand Children's Thinking and Learning Organising for Teaching and Learning Supporting and Enhancing Learning and Teaching and reflects the current context of education and care by covering children from birth to 11 years There are new chapters covering teaching assistants and interagency working as well as children s independence and physical activity Cameos and examples of practice in settings and classrooms help to illustrate the many different aspects of teaching Comprehensively revised and updated throughout this book is written in a lively style and offers guidance encouragement and support for all those new to working in schools and other educational settings and gives them the confidence to reflect upon challenge and enhance their own learning and practices Beginning Teaching Beginning Learning is essential reading for all students and newly qualified primary teachers

Beginning Teaching, Beginning Learning: In Early Years and Primary Education Janet Moyles, Jane Payler, Jan Georgeson, 2017-06-16 This bestselling textbook provides an introduction to the fundamentals of teaching and learning in early years and primary education If you are training to work in schools or other educational settings the book offers a wide range of practical and straightforward guidance covering essential topics such as safeguarding attachments and relationships assessment the indoor and outdoor environment new technologies behaviour management and well being Thoroughly updated throughout and retaining its lively and engaging style this new fifth edition extends your knowledge and understanding of working and playing effectively with young children Enlivened by thought provoking cameos and reflective questions the book gives you the confidence to reflect upon challenge and enhance your own pedagogies Key features include Real life cameos drawn from schools and settings Questions to promote thinking included in each chapter Suggested further reading including a range of annotated references Up to date research and issues that teachers may face Beginning Teaching Beginning Learning is essential reading for student and newly qualified early years and primary teachers and practitioners as well as those who educate and train them This outstanding book should a core text for beginning teachers working in the birth to 11 age range It places Early Years and Primary education in the historical context and encourages new teachers to become reflective practitioners by adopting a questioning approach based on thoughtful comparative experiences One aspect which makes this stand out from other similar texts is the focus it has on developing a deep understanding of the partnership between children s learning and the beginner teacher Contributors many of whom have been teachers themselves include experts not only in their specific fields of interest but also in teacher education more broadly so understand what is relevant for those on initial teacher education courses and those in the early stages of their teaching career Jane Warwick Primary PGCE Course Manager University of Cambridge UK Beginning Teaching Beginning Learning should be a core text on all birth to 11 years ITT courses The book neatly combines grounded cameos of actual teaching experience with real life questions and dovetails these with a thoroughly referenced scholarly critique Through its engaging style and approach the book speaks clearly and directly to the inquisitive curious and professional novice teacher who wishes to be both thoroughly reflective and knowledgeable of the latest research This book is hugely successful as it manages to be both very wide in its content whilst encouraging a questioning and in depth critical thinking throughout Guy

Roberts Holmes MA Early Years Education Programme Director UCL Institute of Education UK Beginning Teaching and Beyond Kevin Barry, Len King, 1998 Beginning Teaching and Beyond is a text for all student teachers and for experienced teachers and principals who want to become effective and to renew or revitalise their teaching The text which is divided into three parts addresses these major questions Part One How might student teachers prepare for teaching practice Part Two What approaches can student teachers experienced teachers and principals take to become more effective at teaching through self improvement Part Three In what ways and to what extent can research in teaching inform and improve classroom practice Students will become engaged in the process of teacher self improvement as they develop first the competence to cope with their early teaching practice periods and then strive for higher level of effectiveness preparatory to their long term teaching practice or initial teaching appointments For those beyond their initial teaching appointment sections about teacher renewal reflective teaching and action research will be of particular relevance Beginning Teaching, 2012-03-01 Beginning Teaching Sandy Schuck, Peter Aubusson, John Buchanan, Tom Russell, 2012-02-28 The experiences of the first years of new teachers professional lives are critical to their decisions about embracing or leaving the teaching profession Writ large these experiences have the potential to either underpin or undermine the growth and development of the teaching profession This book offers a research based account of beginning teachers experiences told from their own perspectives and often in their own words Beginning Teaching Stories from the Classroom provides valuable source material to inform teacher education practices The authors draw on more than 20 years of research on the professional learning retention and attrition of beginning teachers to provide evocative illustrations of the challenges and successes that occur in the early years of teaching The compelling and coherent narratives will appeal not only to student and graduate teachers but also to program designers coaches and senior managers in schools Above all the book speaks to teacher educators in the hope that the experiences discussed here will suggest ways of supporting student teachers to grow and flourish once they launch their careers in the profession These evocative stories express beginning teachers anguish and elation and also provide testimony to their resilience and perseverance in an altruistic profession The analysis and interpretation of their stories will challenge and uplift inspire and shame give cause for celebration and melancholy generate empathy and provoke introspection Above all else these stories call for change Beginning Teaching, 1988 Beginning Teaching Gerald Haigh, 1972 An Introduction to Teaching, Learning, and School Culture Kristen Nielsen, 2014-08-27 Beginning Teaching Kevin Barry, Len King, 1993 Beginning Teaching Joseph Emory Avent, 1926 *A Comparative Study of Two Methods of Teaching Beginning Swimming.
