Juergen Moltmann

Beginnings Without End:

In the End the Beginning Juergen Moltmann, 2013-01-26 In my end is my beginning wrote T S Eliot at the close of his poem East Coker and that line gave me the title for this book With it I should like to express the power of the Christian hope for Christian hope is the power of resurrection from life s failures and defeats It is the power of the rebirth of life out of the shadows of death It is the power for the new beginning at the place where guilt has made life impossible From the Introduction by Jurgen Moltmann In this short doctrine of hope Jurgen Moltmann examines the personal experiences in life in which the future is awaited times when we search for new beginnings and find them In three parts that correspond to the three beginnings in life birth rebirth and resurrection Moltmann extols the true value of Christian hope that powers new beginnings Jurgen Moltmann is Emeritus Professor of Systematic Theology at the University of Tubingen Germany He is the author of a number of books published by SCM Press including Theology of Hope The Crucified God and The Church in the Power of the Spirit The End of the World Marcia Sa Cavalcante Schuback, Susanna Lindberg, 2017-03-29 The end of the world opens up philosophical questions concerning the very notion of the world which is a fundamental element of all existential phenomenological and hermeneutical philosophy Is the end of the world for us somebody s death the end of being in the world or the extinction of many or of all the end of the world itself Is the erosion of the world a phenomenon that does not in fact affect the notion of the world as a fundamental feature of all existential ontological inquiry This volume examines the present state of these concerns in philosophy film and literature It presents a philosophical hermeneutics of the present state of the world and explores the principal questions of the philosophical accounts of the end of the world such as finality and finitude It also shows how literature and cinema have ventured to express the end of the world while asking if a consequent expression of the end of the world is also an end of its expression Jewish Theology Kaufmann Kohler, 1918
