Behind The G String:

Behind the G-String David A. Scott, 2003-11-13 In recent years the number of strip clubs in the United States has increased dramatically Dressed up with terms such as gentlemen s clubs they often feature valet parking limousines executive dining rooms extravagant menus and of course topless or nude women dancing on stage Stripping has become a big business with over 3 5 million people primarily men attending clubs each week But what about the women who perform in the clubs Why do they do it What is their perception of their job Numerous interviews with working strippers accompany extensive research in the literature Some strippers see stripping as simply a job others view it with a degree of embarrassment while many see it as an opportunity for empowerment Few became strippers by design but a surprising number continue to strip for many years The use of drugs and instances of abuse are covered as are the views of the strippers families

Undressed for Success B. Foley, 2016-09-27 Using the tools of performance studies gender theory and cultural history Brenda Foley explores the striking similarities between beauty pageantry and striptease For example women in both project a normal femininity and adhere to a strict hierarchy Miss America contestants look down upon Miss Universe contestants while theatrical burlesque artists saw themselves as far above mere carnival strippers Undressed for Success collects extensive primary source research newspapers journals trade publications photography collections press releases memoirs and interviews with both strippers and pageant contestants and employs a wide array of gender feminist and performance theory to analyze them
