Chapman, 2004 This booklet examines trends and issues in education management and efficiency across DMCs and suggests ways through which governments can strengthen the administration of their education systems Household Willingness and (in)ability to Pay for Education Pauline Rose, 2001 Research in Education, 1970-12 Education Reform in the Context of Regional Autonomy, 2001 Community Financing of Education M. Bray, K. Lillis, 2016-01-22 This volume discusses the issues relating to community support for education a topic which has come increasingly to the fore in recent years especially in the Third World The book is divided into four main areas Firstly an initial explanation of the conceptual framework of the book is given Secondly the issues surrounding community financing of education are explored including community bodies engaged in fund raising generating resources school fees geographic and social inequalities and central guidance and control The third section discusses case studies from seven countries and finally the policy implications of this study are assessed Education Financing and Budgetary Reforms in Africa Oluyele Akinkugbe, Vusi Kunene, 2001 This book sets out the Swaziland educational model and policies and in the context of the management of the national economy It shows that the proportion of the annual government budget devoted to education in Swaziland ranks amongst the highest in Africa and many of the goals set at the world summit for children in 1990 are being achieved There is universal access of primary education gender equality of access across almost all levels of education The study also shows however that less positively the system is increasingly under financial pressure particularly to fund the growing demand for higher education comparatively very expensive The co authors advocate comprehensive budgetary and financial reforms drawing up a model in line with current policy directions to increase funding for tertiary education and so release more funds for improving quality at lower levels Catalog of Publications World Bank Group, 2000 Complete current catalog of all print and online journals and monographs Agents of Change Asian Development Bank, 2007 Publications Update World Bank, 1996 Monthly Bibliography United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland), 1997 The Shadow Education System Mark Bray, 2007 Because of its size in a number of countries and due to its nature that of a private service oriented at improving academic performance private tutoring has important implications for the educational system as a whole that cannot be ignored by educational policies This publication contributes to the debate about private tutoring through its systematization of available information and its analysis It asks the questions Who supplies and demands this service What effects does it have on the formal education system and What are the policy options facing education planners The research draws on existing research conducted in different parts of the world but primarily in Asia where private tutoring is particularly widespread Publisher's description
