Before And After Easter:

The Ecclesiastical Calendar Samuel Butcher, 1877      Common Service Book of the Lutheran Church United Lutheran Church in America, 1918      Preacher of Grace Anthony Dupont, 2014-07-17 Augustine of Hippo 354-430 became known as the doctor of grace. He developed his theory of divine grace mainly in his systematic treatises directed against the Pelagians ca. 411-430. Did he however also preach about this complex and at first sight demoralizing issue in his sermons to the people? In his previous book BSCH 59 Anthony Dupont studied the profile of the treatment of gratia in the anti-Pelagian sermons ad populum. In a Preacher of Grace Dupont offers an account of the presence of the theme of grace in Augustine's sermons not situated in the Pelagian controversy. He first studies sermons preached on important liturgical feasts which belong to the non-polemical pastoral preaching genre. They are distributed throughout the 40 years of Augustine's preaching activity and are Christological in content and moralising in intention. Secondly, he examines sermons situated in the Donatist controversy preceding the anti-Pelagian sermons chronologically and differing from them in terms of content. This research provides a global picture of the presence and treatment of gratia in Augustine's sermons and clarifies the interaction between context, audience, and preaching genre on the one hand and the theme of grace as a whole on the other. It also contributes to the debate on discontinuity in Augustine's thought on grace.
