

A Declaration of Peace

THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT ACCELERATOR & GLOBAL BUSINESS LEADERSHIP FORUM

Guided by the principles, goals and objectives of WIPDO,

The Sustainable Development Accelerator & Global Business Leadership Forum of the year 2017 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Forum'), recognizes that:

As expressed in the UN Declaration on the right to development, that development is a comprehensive economic, social, cultural and political process, which aims at the constant improvement of the well-being of the entire population and of all individuals on the basis of their active, free and meaningful participation in development and in the fair distribution of benefits resulting therefrom.

The forum also recalls UN Resolution A/RES/70/1 "Transforming our world: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development"

In this vein, the forum further notes that peace, in today's context must go beyond the simple understanding of a cessation of violence or conflict, and also encapsulate the quality of life, sustainable development, wellbeing and consensual collaboration of states, its citizens, and with regard to the environment.

Grass root communities, Academia, Scientific community and Health professionals

The Forum recognizes that in order to effectively develop and improve the areas set forth above, that it is necessary to establish an ongoing discourse that includes not states alone, but also a strong and robust civil society body that includes academia, health and medical professionals, quantum scientists and spiritual leaders, in order to arrive at non-traditional solutions to pressing issues.

The forum notes that a platform that includes such professionals can yield creative and collaborative processes toward achieving sustainable development.

The forum encourages the formation and development of platforms for discussing and insight-gathering on sustainable development themes at grassroots level, including among the peasant farming communities and traditional medicinal experts.

It also notes the importance of education and health indicators within the discourse of sustainable development and encourages participants of WIPDO sessions to further elaborate and discuss how, as a community and civil society body, the academia, health, spiritual and scientific community can assist in improving these spheres.

Media and Public Figures

The forum recognizes the importance of the role of public figures and celebrities in furthering discussions and topics pertaining to sustainable development and peace, and welcomes the participation and collaboration of such individuals in the work and forums of WIPDO.

It further notes the strategic and vital role that is played by the media in progressing topics discussed by the forum, and encourages the active participation of media bodies in future forums organized by the WIPDO.

Way forward

The forum encourages the participants of this July session to recommend via e-mail to the WIPDO Secretariat any further areas of importance that they believe should be at the forefront of WIPDO sessions in the future, to be discussed at the national and international level. The forum calls for the among the scientific, academic, spiritual and health reach greater depths of understanding and used in achieving sustainable development. Its importance and impact that could be made countries to developing countries; and and health communities in developed technologies with those communities in. The forum encourages the organisation of themes related to sustainable development and strengthening of collaboration and best practice sharing communities in developing countries, as means to improvement in the systems and procedures to be this regard, the forum notes the immense through technology sharing from developed encourages the scientific, academic, spiritual countries to collaborate and share their developing countries accordingly. future forums and platforms to further discuss peace.

Shaping the Culture of Peace in a Multilateral World Patrick Petit, 2017-07-05 As the world faces a multitude of complexly interwoven challenges new values and new worldviews are emerging to change the ways in which human beings relate to each other to our planet and to all life on Earth In today's globalized world humanity is becoming inescapably aware that coexistence cooperation and respect for diversity are fundamental values by which all of us must live These essential human values which apply in all individual and societal relationships are likewise intrinsic to a culture of peace a way of living that will allow a harmonious multifaceted global civilization to blossom Central to this volume is a belief that in an interdependent world collective decision making for the collective good is the most effective way to move forward In order to respect the balance among cultures and nations decisions that have a global impact must be taken multilaterally No culture can achieve and maintain its international objectives by acting unilaterally nor can any nation or cultural group claim to represent the whole of humanity Shaping the Culture of Peace in a Multilateral World compiles prominent visionary articles from United Nations institutions and regional and other intergovernmental organizations and highlights the contributions being made to the creation of a culture of peace It aims to strengthen multilateral cooperation among intergovernmental organizations worldwide and to facilitate the formation of a global network of multilateral mechanisms which will provide collective and holistic responses to the peace and security challenges of the 21st century Shaping the Culture of Peace in a Multilateral World is in itself a true example of multilateralism and a publication treasure for people who are active or interested in international diplomacy and international affairs
