Decoding Darkness Marissa Farrar, 2018-05-08 I've allowed myself to be kidnapped by the person I hate most in the world I find myself in the clutches of the monster who murdered my father He wants something from me something I have no intention of ever giving him But there are men with him who I fear more men who will take whatever they want from a woman whether or not she agrees Locked in a dark cell with threats coming at me from every direction only one thing keeps me going that the five guys who burst into my life so unapologetically will now come to rescue me The memory of their passionate touches and kisses warm me in my darkest moments But I'm no damsel in distress I might need them to get me out of here but I have plans of my own I'll retrieve the device they've been hunting for and I'll fight until it's back in rightful hands
