

The book cover features a complex, repeating pattern of Celtic maze designs. The pattern is rendered in a golden-yellow color against a dark green background. The design consists of various geometric shapes, including squares, rectangles, and interlocking lines that form a continuous, intricate maze. The pattern is arranged in a grid-like fashion, with larger square units containing more complex internal designs. The overall effect is one of traditional craftsmanship and mathematical precision.

Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him.
