Civilization A Personal View:

Civilisation Kenneth Clark, 2005 Kenneth Clark's sweeping narrative looks at how Western Europe evolved in the wake of the collapse of the Roman Empire to produce the ideas, books, buildings, works of art and great individuals that make up our civilisation. The author takes us from Iona in the ninth century to France in the twelfth, from Florence to Urbino, from Germany to Rome, England, Holland and America. Against these historical backgrounds, he sketches an extraordinary cast of characters, the men and women who gave new energy to civilisation and expanded our understanding of the world and of ourselves. He also highlights the works of genius they produced in architecture, sculpture and painting, in philosophy, poetry and music, and in science and engineering, from Raphael's School of Athens to the bridges of Brunel.

Civilization Niall Ferguson, 2011-11-01

From the bestselling author of The Ascent of Money and The Square and the Tower, a dazzling history of Western ideas. The Economist: Mr Ferguson tells his story with characteristic verve and an eye for the felicitous phrase. Wall Street Journal: Written with vitality and verve, a tour de force. Boston Globe: Western civilization's rise to global dominance is the single most important historical phenomenon of the past five centuries. How did the West overtake its Eastern rivals? And has the zenith of Western power now passed? Acclaimed historian Niall Ferguson argues that beginning in the fifteenth century, the West developed six powerful new concepts or killer applications: competition, science, the rule of law, modern medicine, consumerism, and the work ethic that the Rest lacked, allowing it to surge past all other competitors. Yet now Ferguson shows how the Rest have downloaded the killer apps the West once monopolized, while the West has literally lost faith in itself. Chronicling the rise and fall of empires alongside clashes and fusions of civilizations, Civilization: The West and the Rest recasts world history with force and wit. Boldly argued and teeming with memorable characters, this is Ferguson at his very best.

The Self-destruction of the West Damien François, 2007

Voilà d'ormais plus de 10 000 ans que la civilisation occidentale s'est installée et voilà 10 000 ans qu'elle viole le sens même de la nature, la vie. En s'appropriant sans concession ce qui l'entourait, l'homme de l'Ouest a vu son horizon plier sous la charge de la destruction qu'il lui avait lui-même réalisée. Sommes-nous des lycanthropes ou des vampires? Ces monstres si terrifiants qui sortent de notre imagination sont-ils en réalité la copie de notre comportement de vastateur? Prêteurs, nous pompons sans remords les énergies qui nous entourent. Jusqu'où ira-t-on?
