Reynolds, Ralph V. Norman, 1988 Community in America Charles H. Reynolds, Ralph V. Norman, 1988 Community and Social Change in America Thomas Bender, 1978 Did urbanization kill community in the nineteenth century or even earlier In this highly regarded volume Bender argues not only that community survived the trials of industrialization and urbanization but that it remains a fundamental element of America The Future of the Jewish Community in America American Jewish Committee, David Sidorsky, 1973 The Community in Rural America Kenneth P. Wilkinson, 2023-03-15 The Community in Rural America by Kenneth P. Wilkinson is a foundational theoretical work that both defines the interactional approach to the study of the community in rural areas and frames its application to encourage and promote rural community development Recognized for its detailed theoretical construction and logic for understanding human interactions this book has been widely adopted and used by researchers extension faculty and community development practitioners for over thirty years Presenting Wilkinson's groundbreaking work in its original form with a new foreword aimed at clarifying several key concepts in interactional theory this edition of The Community in Rural America will appeal to new students of the community as well as established scholars in the field America 2000 Community Notebook, 1992 Publication of the American Sociological Society American Sociological Association, 1929 List of members in v 1 5 25 28 supplemental list in v 26 27 The Lost City Alan Ehrenhalt, 1996-08-23 Millions of Americans yearn for a lost sense of community for the days when neighbors looked out for one another and families were stable and secure The 1950s are regarded as the golden age of community but 1960s rebellion and 1980s nostalgia have blurred our view of what life was really like back then In The Lost City Alan Ehrenhalt cuts through the fog immersing us in the sights sounds and rhythms of life in America forty years ago He takes us down the streets and into the homes schools and shops of three neighborhoods in one quintessentially American city Chicago In St Nicholas of Tolentine parish on the Southwest Side we see how the local Catholic church served as the moral and social center of community life In Bronzeville the heart of the black South Side we meet the civic leaders who offered hope and role models to people hemmed in by poverty and segregation And in Elmhurst a commuter suburb bursting with new subdivisions we witness the culture of middle class conformity and the ways in which children and adults bent to the rules of the majority culture Through evocative stories and incisive analysis Ehrenhalt shows that the glue holding each neighborhood together was an unstated social compact under which people accepted limits in their lives and deferred to authority figures to enforce those limits a compact destroyed by the baby boomers rejection of authority in the 1960s Since that time an entire generation has come to believe that personal choice is the most important of life's values But Ehrenhalt argues that if we truly wish to balance the demands of modern life with a feeling of community we have a great deal to learn from the limited life of the 1950s The Lost City reveals the price we must pay to restore community in our lives today and the values that will make such a restoration possible Community Psychology Sibnath Deb, Aleena Maria Sunny, Nilanjana Sanyal, Shayana Deb, 2023-11-10 This book focuses on the theoretical concepts of community psychology and its applications in day to day life It discusses the challenges that adversely affect the welfare and well being of common people and suggests community centric evidence based measures to address them Factors like new age lifestyles fast paced development and an increase in occurrence of natural calamities have been detrimental to the psychological well being of the community This volume integrates the social cultural economic political and environmental aspects of community psychology to address community life based issues which include mental health stigma social asymmetries resource disparities disadvantaged minority groups the differently abled HIV AIDS patients project affected people and disaster victims Key features of this book include Dedicated intervention based chapters on mental health physical health differently abled people the elderly vulnerable children HIV AIDS patients and people affected by development projects and disasters Focus on challenges faced by students and school based family counselling Case studies and conceptual models for better understanding and application of the subject The volume will be a valuable resource to students researchers and teachers of Psychology Social Work Sociology Public Health and Social Economics It will also be an indispensable read for social workers NGOs advocacy groups and policymakers working in the field of social upliftment European Community United States.
