

- 12 I had labored under the sun, for I must leave it to the man who will come after me.
 13 And who knows whether he will be a wiser man or a fool? You he will have control over all the fruit of my labor for which I have labored by toiling under the sun. This too is vanity.
 14 Therefore I completely despaired of all the fruit of my labor for which I had labored under the sun.
 15 When there is a man who has labored with wisdom, knowledge and skill, then he gives his legacy to one who has not labored with them. This too is vanity and a great evil.
 16 For when does a man get in all his labor and to his striving with which he labors under the sun?
 17 Because all his days his task is painful and grievous, even at night his mind does not rest. This too is vanity.
 18 There is nothing better for a man than to eat and drink and not himself that he labor to gain. This also I have seen that it is from the hand of God.
 19 For who can eat and who can have enjoyment without them?
 20 For is a person who is good in his sight the less given wisdom and knowledge and joy, while to the stupid the less given the task of gathering and collecting so that he may give to one who is good in God's sight. This too is vanity and according to other words.

A Day for Everything

21 There is an appointed time for everything, and there is a time for every great matter:

- 1 A time to give birth and a time to die;
  - 2 A time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted;
  - 3 A time to kill and a time to heal;
  - 4 A time to tear down and a time to build up;
  - 5 A time to weep and a time to laugh;
  - 6 A time to mourn and a time to dance;
  - 7 A time to throw stones and a time to gather stones;
  - 8 A time to embrace and a time to abstain embracing;
  - 9 A time to search and a time to give up on that;
  - 10 A time to keep and a time to throw away;
  - 11 A time to tear apart and a time to sew together;
  - 12 A time to be silent and a time to speak;
  - 13 A time to love and a time to hate;
  - 14 A time for war and a time for peace.
- 15 What profit is there to the worker from that in which he toils?
 16 I have seen the task which God has given the men of men with which to occupy themselves.
 17 He has made everything "appetizing" to his eyes. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet no man can find that out the work which God has done from the beginning even to the end.

- 18 I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good to one's fellowmen.
 19 Moreover, that every man who takes his drink will be glad in all his labor—it is the gift of God.
 20 I know that everything God does will remain forever; there is nothing to add to it and there is nothing to take from it, for God has no one who works that men should fear Him.
 21 That which is has been already and that which will be has already been, for God does what he has pleased to.
 22 Furthermore, I have seen under the sun that in the place of justice there is wickedness and in the place of righteousness there is wickedness.
 23 I said to myself, "God will judge both the righteous man and the wicked man," for a day for every matter and for every deed is there.
 24 I said to myself concerning the men of my time, "God has surely tested them in order for them to see that they are not honest."
 25 For the fate of the man of men and the fate of beasts is the same, for one dies to die as others; indeed, they all have the same breath, so there is no advantage for man over beast, for all is vanity.
 26 All go to the same place. All come from the dust and all return to the dust.
 27 Who knows that the breath of man would ascend and the breath of the beast descend to the earth?

28 I have seen that nothing is better than the man should be happy in his activities, for that is his lot. For who will bring him to see what will come after him?

29 All go to the same place. All come from the dust and all return to the dust.
