Ties to the Homeland examines the connections maintained across national borders by the children of migrants the oesecond generation In the context of globalisation and increasing population mobility migrants TM transnational ties have become an important topic of research yet until recently we have heard little about the reproduction of such ties in the second generation The transnational engagements of migrants TM children are crucial for understanding future trends in the global movement of people money goods and ideas and they also can have a significant impact on issues of cultural identity and oebelonging for these children who grow up outside their parents TM homelands but may have dual or even multiple notions of oehome The detailed case studies in Tie to the Homeland explore the diverse transnational practices and attitudes of members of the second generation and reveal significant intergenerational differences that bring into question some of the key assumptions underlying existing work on transnationalism The case studies focus on the children of migrants originating in regions such as Europe the Middle East and the South Pacific and they bring an Australian perspective to a field that has been dominated by a European and North American focus Tekkers Seth Burkett, 2020-07-23 One video can change your life When Zak isn t scoring goals for his local football team Redwood Rangers he is endlessly working on his freestyle videos with his dad And when one of those videos goes viral his whole life changes As the views come rolling in everyone wants a piece of him Barcelona want him to shoot an advert with Messi Major sports brands want to endorse him Suddenly his face is on every sports channel But as his celebrity status grows Zak begins to realise that online fame isn t all it s cracked up to be Tekkers is an amusing and entertaining story about the power of social media with the core message that followers are great but friends are even better This is the first book in a planned trilogy of books following Zak on his football and YouTube journey The Teutonic Way: Magic Kveldulf Gundarsson, 2023-05-16 The Teutonic Way Magic is the first book in the Teutonic Way series by Kveld If Gundarsson A well renowned heathen community member and leader This single volume set includes the original content published in the 90s as well as updated information charts tables and more The Veda of the Black Yajus School , 1914 The Third Reich Sourcebook Anson Rabinbach, Sander L. Gilman, 2013-07-10 No documentation of National Socialism can be undertaken without the explicit recognition that the German Renaissance promised by the Nazis culminated in unprecedented horror World War II and the genocide of European Jewry With The Third Reich Sourcebook editors Anson Rabinbach and Sander L Gilman present a comprehensive collection of newly translated documents drawn from wide ranging primary sources documenting both the official and unofficial cultures of National Socialist Germany from its inception to its defeat and collapse in 1945 Framed with introductions and annotations by the editors the documents presented here include official government and party pronouncements texts produced within Nazi structures such as the official Jewish Cultural League as well as documents detailing the impact of the horrors of National Socialism on those who fell prey to the regime especially Jews and the handicapped With thirty chapters on ideology politics law society cultural policy the fine arts high and popular culture science and medicine sexuality education and other topics The Third Reich Sourcebook is the ultimate collection of primary sources on Nazi Germany Hunting and the Ivory Tower Douglas Higbee, David Bruzina, 2018-05-11 Seventeen hunter scholars explore the hunting experience and question common negative stereotypes Despite the academy having a reputation for supporting broad and open inquiry in scholarship some academics have not extended this open minded support to colleagues personal pursuits A variety of scholars enjoy hunting which has been stereotyped by some as an activity of the unsophisticated In Hunting and the Ivory Tower Douglas Higbee and David Bruzina present essays by seventeen hunter scholars who explore the hunting experience and question negative assumptions about hunting made by intellectuals and academics who do not hunt Higbee and Bruzina suspect most academics understanding of hunting is based on brief television news reports of hunter politicians and commercials for reality TV shows such as Duck Dynasty The editors contend that few scholars appreciate the complexities of hunting or give much thought to its ethical ecological and cultural ramifications Through this anthology they hope to start a conversation about both hunting and academia and how they relate The contributors to this anthology are academics from a variety of disciplines each with firsthand hunting experience Their essays vary in style and tone from the scholarly to the personal and represent the different ways in which scholars engage with their avocation The essays are grouped into three sections the first focuses on the often fraught relation between hunters and academic culture the second section offers personal accounts of hunting by academics and the third portrays hunting from an explicitly academic point of view whether in terms of value theory metaphysics or history Combined these essays render hunting as a culturally rich deeply personal and intellectually satisfying experience worthy of further discussion A foreword is provided by Robert DeMott the Edwin and Ruth Kennedy Distinguished Professor at Ohio University in Athens Ohio He is a teacher writer critic and internationally respected expert on novelist John Steinbeck Harvard Oriental Series, 1925 The Brihadaranyaka Upanisad, 1916 The Facts of Psychic Science and Philosophy A.
