A Friend Of Caesar:

A Friend of Caesar William Davis, 2013-03-20 A classic historical novel a tale of the fall of the Roman Empire A Friend of Caesar William Stearns Davis, 1903-01-01 It was the Roman month of September seven hundred and four years after Romulus so tradition ran founded the little village by the Tiber which was to become Mother of Nations Centre of the World Imperial Rome To state the time according to modern standards it was July fifty years before the beginning of the Christian Era The fierce Italian sun was pouring down over the tilled fields and stretches of woodland and grazing country that made up the landscape and the atmosphere was almost aglow with the heat The dust lay thick on the pavement of the highway and rose in dense stifling clouds as a mule laden with farm produce and driven by a burly countryman trudged reluctantly along Yet though the scene suggested the heat of midsummer it was far from being unrefreshing especially to the eyes of one newly come For this spot was near cool Pr neste one of the favourite resorts of Latium to the wealthy invalid or indolent of Rome who shunned the excessive heat of the capital And they were wise in their choice for Pr neste with its citadel which rose twelve hundred feet over the adjoining country commanded in its ample sweep both the views and the breezes of the whole wide spreading Campagna Here clustering round the hill on which stood the far famed Temple of Fortune lay the old Latin town of the Pr nestians a little farther westward was the settlement founded some thirty odd years before by Sulla as a colony Farther out and stretching off into the open country lay the farmhouses and villas gardens and orchards where splendid nuts and roses and also wine grew in abundant measure A little stream ran close to the highway and here an irrigating machine was raising water for the fields Two men stood on the treadmill beside the large bucketed wheel and as they continued their endless walk the water dashed up into the trough and went splashing down the ditches into the thirsty gardens The workers were tall bronze skinned Libyans who were stripped to the waist showing their splendid chests and rippling muscles Beside the trough had just come two women by their coarse and unpretentious dress evidently slaves bearing large earthen water pots which they were about to fill One of the women was old and bore on her face all the marks which a life of hard manual toil usually leaves behind it the other young with a clear smooth complexion and a rather delicate Greek profile The Libyans stopped their monotonous trudge evidently glad to have some excuse for a respite from their exertions [A Friend of Cæsar: A Tale of the Fall of the Roman Republic.
