Iran and Beyond Nikki R. Keddie, 2000      China and Iran Readjust Relations Shirzad Azad, 2024-01-16 The conclusion of the multilateral agreement about the Iranian nuclear issue in June 2015 was widely predicted to accelerate both the scope and size of commercial interactions between China and Iran As a result the two countries talked about the prospect of increasing their bilateral commerce from less than 50 billion to 600 billion within a short period of time Later Beijing and Tehran moved to sign a 25 year strategic agreement partly to achieve that critical objective The American withdrawal from the nuclear deal under the Trump administration in May 2018 however put a halt to the rosy trade prospect of 600 billion between China and Iran The contentious 25 year pact laid in the limbo in the wake of the crippling regime of international sanctions in which Washington spearheaded against Iran upon quitting the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action Shirzad Azad argues how China's overall commercial relationship with Iran has turned out to be unusually asymmetrical and lopsided over the past several years In some areas Sino Iranian business partnership surprisingly dwindled to a trickle while in several other fields the presence of Chinese brands and technological expertise in Iran unexpectedly reached an all time high
