Bull Connor:

Bull Connor William A. Nunnolley,1991 Biography of the heavy handed Birmingham Alabama police commissioner who turned power hoses and police dogs on black demonstrators led by Martin Luther King in the spring of 1963 A hard look at the man and the times and environment that molded him But for Birmingham Glenn T. Eskew,1997 Historian Glenn Eskew describes the changing face of Birmingham s civil rights campaign from the politics of accommodation practiced by the city s black bourgeoisie in the 1950s to local pastor Fred L Shuttlesworth s groundbreaking use of nonviolent direct action to challenge segregation during the late 1950s and early 1960s Maps notes bibliography index 25 illustrations

Birmingham 1963 Shelley Tougas,2010-02 In May 1963 news photographer Charles Moore was on hand to document the Children s Crusade a civil rights protest But the photographs he took that day did more than document an event they helped change history His photograph of a trio of African American teenagers being slammed against a building by a blast of water from a fire hose was especially powerful The image of this brutal treatment turned Americans into witnesses at a time when hate and prejudice were on trial It helped rally the civil rights movement and energized the public making civil rights a national problem needing a national solution And it paved the way for Congress to finally pass laws to give citizens equal rights regardless of the color of their skin You Have to Be Prepared to Die Before You Can Begin to Live Paul Kix,2023-05-02 From journalist Paul Kix the riveting story never before fully told of the 1963 Birmingham Campaign ten weeks that would shape the course of the Civil Rights Movement and the future of America It s one of the iconic photographs of American history A Black teenager a policeman and his lunging German Shepherd Birmingham Alabama May of 1963 In May of 2020 as reporter Paul Kix stared at a different photo that of a Minneapolis police officer suffocating George Floyd he kept returning to the other photo taken half a century earlier haunted by its echoes What Kix wondered was the full legacy of the Birmingham photo And of the campaign it stemmed from In You Have To Be Prepared To Die Before You Can Begin To Live Paul Kix takes the reader behind the scenes as he tells the story of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference s pivotal 10 week campaign in 1963 to end segregation in Birmingham Alabama At the same time he also provides a window into the minds of the four extraordinary men who led the campaign Martin Luther King Jr Wyatt Walker Fred Shuttlesworth and James Bevel With page turning prose that read like a thriller Kix s book is the first to zero in on the ten weeks of Project C as it was known its specific history and its echoes sounding throughout our culture now It s about Where It All Began for sure but it s also the key to understanding Where We Are Now and Where We Will Be As the fight for equality continues on many fronts Project C is crucial to our understanding of our own time and the impact that strategic activism can have
