Dean,2019-08-28 Nothing has ever excited Tylen Merodine more than being invited by the Regent himself to celebrate the first solar eclipse in his planet s recorded history It s the party of the millennium and if he has to restrain his normal exuberant instincts to fit in that s what he ll do to be a part of it His good intentions vanish however the moment he s presented to the Regent Because there in a gilded cage playing music unlike anything Tylen s ever heard is the most beautiful alien he could imagine For more than twenty years Dek has lived in captivity performing at the whim of those who see him as an animal The Regent is just the latest in a long line of owners and while he s kind he s still blind to Dek s sentient nature Only music gives Dek a voice until Tylen breaks the rules and sneaks in to see and speak to him alone The time they have together is stolen and precious the minutes ticking away until the eclipse is past and they have to go back to the way their lives were before But when the Regent shows an unexpected interest in Tylen s future they begin to wonder if their worlds need to remain so separate Picture Perfect Beverly King,2001 The Public School Journal ,1914

Cultivating Vocation in Literary Studies Erin VanLaningham,Stephanie Johnson,2021-12-07 The concept of vocation has garnered significant attention as a means of speaking about purposeful living and the multiple responsibilities of civic life which converge with the broader goals of liberal education This volume addresses the important role that literary studies can and should play in that conversation With attention to the forms voices and praxis of the discipline and informed by the public humanities these thirteen chapters address critical questions for cultivating vocation in students How might the varied fields within literary studies invite students to consider meaning and purpose How might our pedagogies and theories of interpretation inform the direction of their lives The chapters offer readers a new language and framework for reinvigorating literary studies as a productive means to answer life s most significant questions while also modelling how vocational exploration can be incorporated into multiple disciplines and contexts The volume as a whole positions literary studies as vital to the conversation about value civic engagement and purpose as it shapes not only the lives of students but also the future of higher education The World Who's who of Women ,1988 Slavonic (and East European) Review ...
