

EATING POETRY

BY MARK STRAND

Ink runs from the corners of my mouth.
There is no happiness like mine.
I have been eating poetry.
The librarian does not believe what she sees.
Her eyes are sad
and she walks with her hands in her dress.
The poems are gone.
The light is dim.
The dogs are on the basement stairs and coming up.
Their eyeballs roll,
their blond legs burn like brush.
The poor librarian begins to stamp her feet and weep.
She does not understand.
When I get on my knees and lick her hand,
she screams.
I am a new man.
I snarl at her and bark.
I romp with joy in the bookish dark.

Eleventh Edition, Revised, with Illustrations Rufus Wilmot GRISWOLD, 1851 The Middle Ages Frank N. Magill, 2012-11-12 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Best Books for Children, Preschool Through the Middle Grades, 1978 A Bibliography of Middle Scots Poets William Geddie, 1912 Midland; a Magazine of the Middle West, 1927 The Middle English Lyric and Short Poem Rosemary Greentree, 2001 This Bibliography assembles annotation of collections and criticism of lyrics of religious and secular love carols and songs and rhymes of everyday life The Middle English lyrics and short poems form a varied group that ranges over most aspects of life to include lyrics of religious and secular love carols and songs and mundane rhymes of everyday life Thus there are expressions of devotion ethereal or earthly theological expositions and knowledge needed for life The poems are disparate and generally anonymous and their survival owes much to chance The bibliography assembles neutral annotation of collections and criticism of the works arranged chronologically to show the course of criticism and the growing appreciation of these poems and all they can tell us The introduction considers these matters problems of definition of the genre and the isolable lyrics and seeks to reconcile some first impressions of the poems as disparate and slight with the rewards of close study ROSEMARY GREENTREE is currently Visiting Research Fellow Dept of English University of Adelaide A History of European Literature in the Middle Ages and Modern Times John Reynell Morell,1874 English Poems: Old English and middle English periods 450-1550 Walter Cochrane Bronson,1910
