Better Man A Novel:

The Better Man Robert William Chambers, 1916 The Better Man Howard Weinstein, 2000-09-22

The Better Man When the planet Empyrea a colony of genetically perfected human beings demands that the Federation remove a science station which has been in place for nearly twenty years the Starship Enterprise is assigned to transport the Federation ambassador who negotiated with the Empyreans long ago an ambassador who was once Dr McCoy's closest friend but is now a bitter rival On Empyrea McCoy discovers Anna a daughter he never knew he had McCoy soon realizes that the isolationist Empyreans must not learn her father is an off worlder and that her genes are less than perfect As relations with the Empyreans collapse around him McCoy must find a way to save his newfound daughter from the harshest penalty her planet can impose

Feminist Utopian Novels of the 1970s Tatiana Teslenko, 2003-08-19 This book presents an exploration of the reinvented utopia that provided second wave feminists of the 1970s with a conceptual space to articulate the politics of change Tatiana Teslenko argues that utopian fiction of this decade offered a means of validating the personal as well as the political and of criticizing a patriarchal social order Teslenko reveals feminists attempt through fiction to envision a new political order

Tradition and Modernity. Changing the Images of Women in Selected Fiction by Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Sasikala Alagiri, 2017-11-21 Along with a range of socio cultural political and economic concerns the focus on self has been an inevitable assertion of writers during the last quarter of the twentieth century Individualistic in tone the contemporary women novelists are trying to portray realistically the predicament of modern women torn between the forces of tradition and modernity their sense of frustration and alienation the emotional and psychological turmoil and complexities of man women relationships and subtleties of feminine consciousness against the persistent patriarchal social set up Cognizant of the evils originating from patriarchy a positive sense of feminine identity has been recognized by them and the result is the emergence of a new woman in Indian society and its concept in the Indian English novel which has assumed a strident posture in the contemporary writings by women The shift from submission to assertion acquiescence to resistance and obedience to rebellion however has not been abrupt and effortless Women are still in the process of negotiation with different limiting factors and thresholds of patriarchy to claim their due space and affirm their identity The present study is an attempt to critically investigate the negotiations with cultural norms by the women characters in the selected novels by the contemporary novelists namely Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Almost all the women characters major and minor from the selected novels have been considered and positioned as per their ideological leanings and convictions under two thematic chapters namely Women in the Clutches of Traditional Norms and Tradition to Modernity The major issues around which the novels move education marriage gendered space and mother daughter relationships are taken up to put them within the contemporary social conditions in which women characters live The present book is divided into five chapters to make a critical and analytical study of the select novels of these contemporary Indian women writers in English The present work is focused on five selected novels Manju Kapur s Difficult Daughters Home and Custody and Anita Nair s Ladies Coup and Mistress
