Epidemiology of Avian Influenza Viruses Irene Iglesias,Timothée Vergne,Mathilde C. Paul,Paolo Mulatti,Thawat Tiensin,2019-08-29 Avian influenza is a highly contagious viral disease characterized by intense circulation in the wild waterbird reservoirs with periodical introductions into the domestic poultry sector AI viruses have been the source of devastating economic losses in the poultry industry over the last three decades and have become a major veterinary and public health concern due to their zoonotic potential The most emblematic illustration of this impact has been the emergence of the HPAI H5N1 virus in southern China in the mid 1990s followed by its continental spread across East and Southeast Asia and the unprecedented epidemics recorded in 2003 2004 More recently from 2014 to 2017 several subtypes of HPAI including H5N1 H5N6 H5N8 emerged in East Asia and spread intercontinentally stressing the crucial role of this geographical hotspot as a source of new HPAI subtypes The international dimension and the difficulty to effectively control those epidemics highlight the need for a global approach to HPAI surveillance and a comprehensive knowledge on epidemiology and patterns of the disease This Research Topic aims at contributing to fill this gap It includes ten papers which supplement the knowledge of the epidemiology of AI and offer new approaches on control strategies in various regions of the world

Necessary Conditions of Learning Ference Marton, 2014-06-20 Necessary Conditions of Learning presents a research approach phenomenography and a theory the variation theory of learning introduced and developed by Ference Marton and taken up by his wide and varied following around the world together with their practical applications in educational contexts Reflecting Marton's whole lifetime's work the unique and significant contribution of this book is to offer an evidence based answer to the questions How do we make novel meanings our own and How do we learn to see things in more powerful ways The presentation makes use of hundreds of empirical studies carried out in Europe and Asia which build on the theory The line of reasoning and the way in which the examples are put together is consistent with the theory it is both presented and applied The main argument is that in order to learn we have to discern and to discern the intended ideas we must be presented with carefully structured variation against a background of invariance We then go through processes of contrast generalization and fusion in order to make sense These insights form a practical framework for those who design teaching and teaching materials Necessary Conditions of Learning is a major original work for which scholars of pedagogical theory have been waiting a long time

Army Ordnance, 1924 Between the Lines Ernest Andrew Ewart, 1915 Acts and Resolves Passed by the Legislature of Wisconsin Wisconsin, 1874 Through the Leaves, 1928 Collier's, 1928 Commander's order book for a Mediterranean battleship sir Robert Keith Arbuthnot (bart.), 1900 Everybody's Magazine, 1922 Boxing Simplified Clarence E. Kennedy, 1929 Abstract By diligently following the principles set forth in this book I am convinced that any mature person with ordinary intelligence and initiative can without previous ring experience become a capable teacher of boxing The book was primarily written to meet the requests of a number of boxing instructors many of them my former pupils who feel the need of such a handbook for their work It also arose from the suggestion of a neighbor boy who felt that a book of simplified tactics with illustrations in which the boxers were numbered and the drill counts given would enable a troop of Boy Scouts or any group of boys to learn boxing without an instructor Thus though designed for the professional teacher the book is also intended for the beginner who wishes to master the principles and technique of practical boxing How far it has succeeded in the latter aim is indicated by the comment of a father who on seeing it in manuscript declared that it was the book he had long looked for in order that he might enjoy roughing it with his boys in teaching them boxing And it is so simple said he that anyone can follow it This statement led to the title BOXING SIMPLIFIED The People's Home Journal ,1921
