Between Deleuze And Derrida:

Between Deleuze and Derrida Paul Patton, John Protevi, 2003-05-01 Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Derrida are the two leading philosophers of French post structuralism Both theorists have been widely studied but very little has been done to examine the relation between them Between Deleuze and Derrida is the first book to explore and compares their work This is done via a number of key themes including the philosophy of difference language memory time event and love as well as relating these themes to their respective approaches to Philosophy Literature Politics and Mathematics Contributors Eric Alliez Branka Arsic Gregg Lambert Leonard Lawlor Alphonso Lingis Tamsin Lorraine Jeff Nealon Paul Patton Arkady Plotnitsky John Protevi Daniel W Smith Deleuze and Derrida Vernon W. Cisney, 2018-11-27 Examines independent documentary film production in India within a political context Proust Between Deleuze and Derrida James Dutton, 2022 Explores the deep affinity between Proust's textual experimentation and the revolutionary philosophical interventions of Derrida and Deleuze James Dutton argues that Proust's lone published text la recherche du temps perdu 1913 1927 stages a uniquely productive encounter between philosophy and literature In its genre defying originality it anticipates some of the most important concepts and strategies of poststructuralist French thought exemplified in the work of Jacques Derrida and Gilles Deleuze While Derrida and Deleuze are often held to occupy irreconcilable philosophical positions both philosophers are equally relevant to an understanding of Proust's philosophical significance which fundamentally rests on his deferral of textual presence Drawing on a range of conceptual tools from these two philosophical oeuvres including many that are often overlooked by commentators Dutton shows that la recherche stages a process of uninterrupted textual becoming in which the distinction between the concepts of life and literature themselves is broken down He reads textuality as constitutively unfinished suggesting a new confluence between all three thinkers emphasis on life as an endlessly productive deferral James Dutton is a casual lecturer and tutor at the University of New South Wales Sydney Proust Between Deleuze and Derrida James Dutton (Lecturer and tutor at the University of New South Wales), 2023 James Dutton argues that Proust's la recherche du temps perdu 1913 27 stages a uniquely productive encounter between philosophy and literature It anticipates some of the most important concepts and strategies of poststructuralist French thought exemplified in the work of Derrida and Deleuze New Directions in Theorizing Qualitative Research Norman K. Denzin, James Salvo, 2020-04-17 What can it mean to resist in these troubled times and how can we do so through theory This volume presents novel ideas on how to accomplish this in the context of the field of qualitative research The authors show us how we might go beyond pre existing systematized research methodologies to find our way They challenge us to go beyond facile modes of thought and slow down any mechanistic practices of research a slowing that can be surprisingly generative regarding pedagogy and knowledge production The articles think through theories such as ones theorizing the postcolonial for the purpose of responding to global hegemony regarding institutional experiences of academe They engage with practices of new materialism and show the multiform ways in which theory can be a companion to us in our journey of research Further the articles question holdovers from humanist and modernist thought so that we might perform an inclusive pedagogy Rather than falling into the cynical view that the world is too troubled to change this volume presents a sound vision that we have no option but to engage in theoretical practice for now there s no time not to think Gilles Deleuze's Logic of Sense James

Williams,2008-05-20 This is the first critical study of The Logic of Sense Gilles Deleuze s most important work on language and ethics as well as the main source of his vital philosophy of the event James Williams explains the originality of Deleuze s work with careful definitions of all his innovative terms and a detailed description of the complex structure he constructs This reading makes connections to his ground breaking work on literature to his critical but also progressive relation to the sciences and to his controversial denial of the priority of standard logics human values and meaning in thinking This book will open new debates and develop current ones around Deleuze s work in philosophy politics literature linguistics cultural studies and sociology Poststructuralist Agency Rae Gavin Rae,2020-02-14 Gavin Rae shows that the problematic status of agency caused by the poststructuralist decentring of the subject is a central concern for poststructuralist thinkers First Rae shows how this plays out in the thinking of Deleuze Derrida and Foucault He then demonstrates that it is with those poststructuralists associated with and influenced by Lacanian psychoanalysis that this issue most clearly comes to the fore He goes on to reveal that the conceptual schema of Cornelius Castoriadis best explains how the founded subject is capable of agency Politics of the Gift Gerald Moore,2011-04-24 Gerald Moore shows how the problematic of the gift drives and illuminates the last century of French philosophy By tracing the creation of the gift as a concept from its origins in philosophy and the social sciences right up to the present Moore shows Understanding Hegelianism Robert

Sinnerbrink,2014-12-05 Understanding Hegelianism explores the ways in which Hegelian and anti Hegelian currents of thought have shaped some of the most significant movements in twentieth century European philosophy particularly the traditions of critical theory existentialism Marxism and poststructuralism The first part of the book examines Kierkegaard s existentialism and Marx s materialism which present two defining poles of subsequent Hegelian and anti Hegelian movements The second part looks at the contrasting critiques of Hegel by Lukacs and Heidegger which set the stage for the appropriation of Hegelian themes in German critical theory and the anti Hegelian turn in French poststructuralism The role of Hegelian themes in the work of Adorno Habermas and Honneth are explored In the third part the rich tradition of Hegelianism in modern French philosophy is considered the work of Wahl Kojeve Hyppolite Lefebvre Sartre de Beauvoir as well as the radical critique of Hegelianism articulated by Derrida and Deleuze Although the focus is primarily on German and French appropriations of Hegelian thought the author also explores some of the recent developments in Anglophone Hegelianism Music and Belonging Between Revolution and Restoration Naomi Waltham-Smith,2017-06-20 In what ways is music implicated in the politics of belonging How is the proper at stake in listening What role does the ear play in forming the proper at stake in listening What role does the ear play in forming a sense of community Music and Belonging argues that music at the level of style and form produces certain modes of listening that in turn reveal the conditions of belonging Specifically listening shows the intimacy between two senses of belonging belonging to a community is predicated on the possession of a particular property or capacity Somewhat counter intuitively Waltham Smith suggests that this relation between belonging as membership and belonging as ownership manifests itself with particular clarity and rigor at the very heart of the Austro German canon in the instrumental music of Haydn Mozart and Beethoven Music and Belonging provocatively brings recent European philosophy into contact with the renewed music theoretical interest in Formenlehre presenting close analyses to show how we might return to this much discussed repertoire to mine it for fresh insights The book s theoretical landscape offers a radical update to Adornian inspired scholarship working through debates over relationality community and friendship between Derrida Nancy Agamben Badiou and Malabou Borrowing the deconstructive strategies of closely reading canonical texts to the point of their unraveling the book teases out a new politics of listening from processes of repetition and liquidation from harmonic suppressions and even from trills What emerges is the enduring political significance of listening to this music in an era of heightened social exclusion under neoliberalism

Reconsidering Difference Todd May, 1997 French philosophy since World War II has been preoccupied with the issue of difference Specifically it has wanted to promote or to leave room for ways of living and of being that differ from those usually seen in contemporary Western society Given the experience of the Holocaust the motivation for such a preoccupation is not difficult to see For some thinkers especially Jean Luc Nancy Jacques Derrida Emmanuel Levinas and Gilles Deleuze this preoccupation has led to a mode of philosophizing that privileges difference as a philosophical category Nancy privileges difference as a mode of conceiving community Derrida as a mode of conceiving linguistic meaning Levinas as a mode of conceiving ethics and Deleuze as a mode of conceiving ontology

Reconsidering Difference has a twofold task the primary one critical and the secondary one reconstructive The critical task is to show that these various privilegings are philosophical failures They wind up for reasons unique to each position endorsing positions that are either incoherent or implausible Todd May considers the incoherencies of each position and offers an alternative approach His reconstructive task which he calls contingent holism takes the phenomena under investigation community language ethics and ontology and sketches a way of reconceiving them that preserves the motivations of the rejected positions without falling into the problems that beset them
