2.4 Louise is considering taking over and insourcing the work that is currently outsourced to Crossroads Hauliers and Execu-Global travel agency to avoid risks to which the programme is exposed by outsourcing this work. Louise asks you to identify the three biggest risks that can be avoided by handling the trucking of units and travel bookings internally within the programme. Be sure to word your answers clearly so that the risks you list are exclusive to outsourcing and cannot apply to insourcing, hence they can be avoided by switching to insourcing. Make sure that your answers are related to the scenario content. (Max. 2 lines per risk)

From Known Unknowns to Black Swans Carlos A. Vegh,Guillermo Vuletin,Daniel Riera-Crichton,2018-10-05 After a growth recovery with an expansion of 1.1 percent in 2017 the region has encountered some bumps in the road The Latin America and the Caribbean LAC region is expected to grow at a modest rate of 0.6 percent in 2018 and 1.6 percent in 2019 This slowdown in the region's recovery is mainly explained by the crisis that started in Argentina in April the growth slowdown in Brazil and the continued deterioration of Venezuela Furthermore net capital inflows to the region have fallen dramatically since early 2018 bringing once again to the fore the risks faced by LAC In addition natural disasters such as earthquakes and hurricanes have brought devastation to the region with disturbing frequency The core of the report analyzes the foundations of risk develops a theoretical framework to price risk instruments and reviews how LAC has managed risk in practice

Credit Networks in The Preindustrial World Elise M. Dermineur,Matteo Pompermaier,2024-11-06 This open access book examines the formation and sustainability of private credit networks in past societies gathering a global range of case studies from Europe and the Americas The book represents a first attempt to coordinate the work of different scholars working on credit networks and aims to explore the possibilities offered by social network analysis for the study of past financial markets and networks Each contribution offers new perspectives for the comprehension of past financial networks with a broad chronological and geographical scope The chapters are arranged thematically and study both rural and urban networks each employing a network perspective to facilitate an increased understanding of the relational dynamics of preindustrial credit transactions This book models the various ways that SNA can be utilized by economic and financial historians as well as discusses its limitations and ways in which it can be combined with qualitative archival research The book is of interest to a broad audience of scholars in the fields of economic financial and social history
