Between Old Friends:

The Gaithers and Southern Gospel Ryan P. Harper, 2017-04-26 In The Gaithers and Southern Gospel Ryan P Harper examines songwriters Bill and Gloria Gaither's Homecoming video and concert series a gospel music franchise that since its beginning in 1991 has outperformed all Christian and much secular popular music on the American music market The Homecomings represent southern gospel Typically that means a musical style popular among white evangelical Christians in the American South and Midwest and it sometimes overlaps in style theme and audience with country music The Homecomings nostalgic orientation their celebration of traditional kinds of American Christian life harmonize well with southern gospel music past and present But amidst the backward gazes the Homecomings also portend and manifest change The Gaithers deliberate racial integration of their stages their careful articulation of a relatively inclusive evangelical theology and their experiments with an array of musical forms demonstrate that the Homecoming is neither simplistically nostalgic nor solely southern Harper reveals how the Gaithers negotiate a tension between traditional and changing community norms as they seek simultaneously to maintain and expand their audience as well as to initiate and respond to shifts within their fan base Pulling from his field work at Homecoming concerts behind the scenes with the Gaithers and with numerous Homecoming fans Harper reveals the Homecoming world to be a dynamic complicated constellation in the formation of American religious identity

Critical Perspectives on Masculinities and Relationalities Anneli Häyrén, Helena Wahlström Henriksson, 2016-05-30 This volume explores which relations produce or maintain masculinities and certain gendered systems of power and the consequences of these gender constructions that further gender research To understand the meanings of masculinity masculinities and relationalities as critical concepts in gender studies it takes a wide theoretical grip that spans over several research fields From a feminist perspective it critically investigates masculinities as relationally constructed by scrutinizing which relations construct masculinity within a certain gendered system of power such as the nation the family or the workplace and explores how this is done In relation to what is hence in spite of its almost vulgar rhetorical simplicity an important question in investigating and problematizing gender
