through his narrative Literally Saleem is racing against increasingly destructive cracks that threaten to destroy his body On a metaphorical level he is fighting against a force beyond his power a force that ultimately is going to win time Saleem s narrative is drenched with a sense of fatalism of it being too late The race is already lost but at least he must resist his defeat as long as he can that is until he has brought his narrative to an end And all the way through we hear the threatening tick tock always aware that the final point zero is approaching fast and could surprise us along with Saleem at any moment Interestingly however where conventional story tellers build their narratives up towards one big countdown one decisive climax Saleem provides us with numerous countdowns The first one leading up to Saleem s birth coinciding with India s independence and partition followed by a countdown leading up to Saleem s amnesia The birth of his son and his final annihilation constitute the two last countdowns However these countdowns do not grant his narrative any disclosure or release but they seem to be endlessly renewed Once a countdown is up a new one begins each promising a final purpose and meaning but each time leaving us unsatisfied
