Counterfeit Of Murder:

Counterfeit of Murder Ray Harrison,1986      Counterfeit Wife Brett Halliday,1947      The Counterfeit Murder in the Museum of Man Alfred Alcorn,2010 When Norman de Ratour discovers the body of Heinrich von Grumh in a car outside his beloved Museum of Man he knows he faces a sticky public relations mess What he doesn't know is that the gun used to kill the honorary curator is his own Smith Wesson revolver Implicated publicly embarrassed his life's work in danger Norman becomes the prime person on a list of unusual suspects Along the way he both lives with and is aided by Alphas former denizen of the Primate Pavilion and a creature who has an intellect to be reckoned with as well as a low finely articulated opinion of the human species As Norman endeavors to find the villain and clear his name he learns that more than coins gets counterfeited that people from the ravishing merry widow Merissa Bonne to the dour Feidhlimidh de Buitlier are not always what they purport to be Replete with institutional spoofery a plot hedged like a garden maze and a literate style that treats the English language like the verbal funhouse it is this third in the Norman de Ratour murder mysteries series sustains the genre invented by Poe while twisting and bending it into new forms      The Counterfeit Drug Murders Frank E Hopkins,2020-11-13 The premature heart failure of the matriarch Mary tore the Jewel family apart Mary's children and her cardiologist did not accept that Mary had died a natural death Brian Mary's son clinically depressed by his mother's death recruited detectives Hoffman and O Hare to discover who murdered Mary A decade earlier an immoral physician had enslaved her daughter Eve into opioid addiction Mary's death awoke a long simmering hatred Eve independently imposed her retribution on the pharmaceutical industry risking life in prison Eve's revenge involved cyber techniques to identify locate and track her victims Eve mentally struggles with being caught and losing her lover or continuing her self justified revenge The detectives discover Mary's killer might have participated in other murders related to counterfeit drugs They pursue the serial killer as he and his lover flee the police The interstate search for the murderer leads to a fatal car chase through steep and dangerous mountain roads Who will survive The Counterfeit Drug Murders is the third novel in the Hoffman and O Hare Mystery Series Readers of this pharmaceutical thriller mystery have stated it is riveting could not put the book down very timely story in the midst of the opioid crisis and easy to read      A Treatise on Extradition and Interstate Rendition John Bassett Moore,1891      Report on Extradition, with Returns of All Cases from August 9, 1842, to January 1, 1890, and an Index Moore,1890      The "counterfeit" Man Gerald W. McFarland,1990 A thoroughly researched objective work full of fascinating historical detail It is especially valuable for the insight it provides into the way ordinary Americans of the 19th century experienced and confronted the issues and concerns of their time Library Journal      A Treatise on Extradition and Interstate Rendition Moore,1891      A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents United States. President,James Daniel Richardson,1910      The "counterfeit" Man Gerald W. McFarland,Alan M. Dershowitz,1990      Lustmord Maria Tatar,2020-07-21 In a book that confronts our society's obsession with sexual violence Maria Tatar seeks the meaning behind one of the most disturbing images of twentieth century Western culture the violated female corpse This image is so prevalent in painting literature film and most recently in mass media that we rarely question what is at stake in its representation Tatar however challenges us to consider what is taking place both artistically and socially in the construction and circulation of scenes depicting sexual murder In examining images of sexual murder Lustmord she produces a riveting study of how art and murder have intersected in the sexual politics of culture from Weimar Germany to the present Tatar focuses attention on the politically turbulent Weimar Republic often viewed as the birthplace of a transgressive avant garde modernism where representations of female sexual mutilation abound Here a revealing episode in the gender politics of cultural production unfolds as male artists and writers working in a society consumed by fear of outside threats envision women as enemies that can be contained and mastered through transcendent artistic expression Not only does Tatar show that male artists openly identified with real life sexual murderers George Grosz posed as Jack the Ripper in a photograph where his model and future wife was the target of his knife but she also reveals the ways in which victims were disavowed and erased Tatar first analyzes actual cases of sexual murder that aroused wide public interest in Weimar Germany She then considers how the representation of murdered women in visual and literary works functions as a strategy for managing social and sexual anxieties and shows how violence against women can be linked to the war trauma to urban pathologies and to the politics of cultural production and biological reproduction In exploring the complex relationship between victim and agent in cases of sexual murder Tatar explains how the roles came to be destabilized and reversed turning the perpetrator of criminal deeds into a defenseless victim of seductive evil Throughout the West today the creation of similar ideological constructions still occurs in societies that have only recently begun to validate the voices of its victims Maria Tatar s book opens up an important discussion for readers seeking to understand the forces behind sexual violence and its portrayal in the cultural media throughout this century
