Death Drive:

The Death Drive Jeffrey R. Di Leo, Paul Allen Miller, 2025-12-11 The first collection to provide an overview of the well known psychoanalytic theory of the death drive in literary and cultural theory this book features contributions from a range of prominent scholars working in the area of literature philosophy and psychoanalysis After Freud's initial theorization the death drive has been re-interpreted by various psychoanalytic thinkers including Melanie Klein Jacques Lacan and Slavoj Žižek philosophers Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze and Jean Baudrillard political theorists Judith Butler queer theorists Laurent Berlant Lee Edelman and posthumanists Rosi Braidotti This volume brings together some of the leading thinkers and theorists of the death drive as a psychological aesthetic and theoretical principle in literary and cultural theory examining texts by writers such as Plato Henry James and Ezra Pound

The Death Drive Rossella Valdre, 2024-09-02 This comprehensive yet accessible book analyses the clinical and historical experiences that led to the radical complex and fundamental psychoanalytic concept of the death drive In The Death Drive: A Contemporary Introduction Rossella Valdre traces the path that led Sigmund Freud to theorise this key concept in his essay Beyond the Pleasure Principle She considers its roots in Freud's experiences of war trauma and his assessment of the human compulsion to repeat as well as its consequences on his later theoretical and clinical work Short vignettes from the clinician's room and examples from books and films introduce the reader to the birth and development of the concept its biological and philosophical roots and its many clinical implications Valdre also reviews its varied reception among post-Freudians and examines the controversies and questions that the death drive commonly engenders within the psychoanalytic community She concludes by considering the death drive through the medium of art its relationship with sublimation and the confirmation neuroscience is beginning to provide Written in a style that is at once accessible and precise this book is an invaluable tool to students and psychoanalysts in training approaching the theory for the first time as well as practising analysts postgraduate students and scholars familiar with the concept and looking to explore it further

Cultures of the Death Drive Esther Sánchez-Pardo, 2003-05 A study of melancholia sexuality and representation in literary and visual texts that can be read at the crossroads of psychoanalysis and the arts in modernism

Contemporary Perspectives on the Freudian Death Drive Victor Blüml, Liana Giorgi, Daru Huppert, 2019-02-25 Contemporary Perspectives on the Freudian Death Drive provides a sustained discussion of the death drive from the perspective of different psychoanalytic traditions Ever since Freud introduced the notion of the death drive it has been the subject of intense debate in psychoanalysis and beyond The death drive is arguably the most unsettling psychoanalytic concept What this concept points to is more unsettling still It uniquely illuminates the forces of destruction and dissolution at work in individuals as well as in society This book first introduces Freud's use of the term tracing the debates and developments his ideas have led to The subsequent essays by leading Viennese psychoanalysts demonstrate the power of the death drive to illuminate psychoanalytic theory clinical practice and the study of culture Since this book originally arose from a conference in Vienna its final segment is dedicated to the forced exile of the early Viennese psychoanalysts due to the Nazi threat Due to its wide scope and the many perspectives it offers this book is a tribute to the disturbing relevance of the death drive today Contemporary Perspectives on the Freudian Death Drive is of special interest to psychoanalysts psychotherapists social and cultural scientists as well as anyone intending to understand the sources and vicissitudes of human destructiveness

Neuroscience and the Death Drive Adrian Perkel,2025-07-24 In this book Adrian Perkel seeks to expand upon Freud's theory of the death drive by locating it within modern neuroscience arguing for the centrality of the aggressive drive in the formation of mind and the genesis of symptoms and psychopathology Neuroscience and the Death Drive reformulates the function of defence mechanisms as they link to the aggressive drive and their role in the binding of free energy Filling an important gap in both formulation and treatment this book completes Freud's self confessed incomplete theory of aggression through the lens of modern psychoanalysis and neuroscience updating these concepts with current scientific insights and introduces a refreshed view on psychotherapeutic treatment implications based on these developments Perkel explores the treatment of patients experiencing eating disorders anxiety depression addiction personality disorders and sexual dysfunction This invigorating and approachable book will be of interest to all psychoanalysts psychiatrists psychotherapists and counsellors and will help readers reach new understandings of this key theory of the mind

The Uncanny Nicholas Royle,2003 This study is of the uncanny an important concept for contemporary thinking and debate across a range of disciplines and discourses including literature film architecture cultural studies philosophy psychoanalysis and queer theory Much of this importance can be traced back to Freud's essay of 1919 The Uncanny Das Unheimliche Where he was perhaps the first to foreground the distinctive nature of the uncanny as a feeling of something not simply weird or mysterious but more specifically as something strangely familiar As a concept and a feeling however the uncanny has a complex history going back to at least the Enlightenment Royle offers a detailed historical account of the emergence of the uncanny together with a series of close readings of different aspects of the topic Following a major introductory historical and critical overview there are chapters on the death drive déjà vu silence solitude and darkness the fear of being buried alive doubles ghosts cannibalism telepathy and madness as well as more applied readings concerned for example with teaching politics film and religion

Psychoanalytic Reflections on The Freudian

Death Drive Rossella Valdrè,2018-12-07 Psychoanalytic Reflections on The Freudian Death Drive is a highly accessible book that investigates the relevance complexity and originality of a hugely controversial Freudian concept which the author argues continues to exert enormous influence on modernity and plays an often imperceptible role in the violence and so called sad passions of contemporary society With examples from cinema literature and the consulting room the book's four chapters

theory the clinic art and contemporaneity investigate every angle usually little explored of the death drive its positive functions such as its contribution to subjectification its ambiguous relationship with sublimation the clues it provides about transgenerational matters and its effects on the feminine This is not a book about aggression a type of extrojection of the death drive made visible studied and striking rather it is about the derivatives of the pulsion that changes in the clinic in life in society in artistic forms With bold and innovative concepts and by making connections to film and books Rossella Valdr unequivocally argues that the contemporary clinic is a clinic of the death drive Psychoanalytic Reflections on The Freudian Death Drive seeks to relaunch the debate on a controversial and neglected concept and will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists Today s renewed interest in the Freudian death drive attests to its extraordinary ability to explain both new pathologies and socio economic phenomena Mad Men Unbuttoned Natasha Vargas-Cooper,2010-07-20 Mad Men Unbuttoned footnotes to the show and the era including these fascinating tidbits Don Draper s character is based on the real life Draper Daniels prot g of Leo Burnett who started off as a copywriter and rose to creative director eventually heading the team that launched the Marlboro Man The iconic Think Small Volkswagen ad positioned the Beetle as an ugly but well made car a revolt against excess Not only did unit sales top 500 000 cars a year but the campaign succeeded in junking all the rules of car advertising When barred from visiting Disneyland on a trip to the United States Soviet premier Nikita Khrushchev threw a tantrum and left Los Angeles in a huff the very next day The Group by Mary McCarthy the novel Betty Draper is seen reading in the bathtub transformed the way women viewed love sex and marriage In 1947 Christian Dior showcased its revolutionary New Look line Betty Peggy and the rest of the steno pool at Sterling Cooper can be seen sporting the sloping shoulders hourglass silhouettes and billowing skirts of the New Look style Qui Parle ,2003 Sex, Machines and Navels Fred Botting,1999 This work offers a critical re reading of fictions of humanity history technology and postmodern culture Taking psychoanalysis into cyberspace the book develops an theoretical perspective on the relationship with bodies and machines to offer a focused re examination of the notions of desire metaphor sexed identity and difference and the process of technological transformation The Sacred Books of the East ,1895 The Dhammapada ,1887 The Death Drive Revisited ,2013 This dissertation is a reexamination of Sigmund Freud s mature drive theory also known as his theory of the death drive and its relevance for critical social theory and in particular that of the so called Frankfurt school By tracing the emergence of Freud s theory in his enigmatic Beyond the Pleasure Principle and then its development in the hands of Hans Loewald and Jacques Lacan I aim in the first three chapters to articulate a drive theory centered around the opposition between what Freud calls the death drive and the drive to mastery as well as the developmental hazards therein In the last two chapters I then attempt to integrate this drive theory into the Frankfurt school s analysis of the intrusion of mass media and state institutions on the developmental process with the aim of both providing historical weight to the dialectic of death and mastery articulated in the first part of the dissertation and also strengthening the psychological

component of critical theory
