Between Mountains:

Between the Sunset and the Sea: A View of 16 British Mountains Simon Ingram, 2015-03-12 I watched the mirror for a last view for now of the frozen mountains of Glen Coe As the road bent and the outline of Buachaille Etive Mor slid into sight I did what I always did and always would I felt for that flutter of awe and that indefinable unmistakable quickening of the pulse

Mountain agriculture: Opportunities for harnessing Zero Hunger in Asia Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2019-08-07 Mountain food security and nutrition are core issues that can contribute positively to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals but paradoxically are often ignored in Zero Hunger and poverty reduction related agenda Under the overall leadership of Jos Graziano da Silva the Former Director General of FAO sustainable mountain agriculture development is set as a priority in Asia and the Pacific to effectively address this issue and assist Member Countries in tackling food insecurity and malnutrition in mountain regions This comprehensive publication is the first of its kind that focuses on the multidimensional status challenges opportunities and solutions of sustainable mountain agriculture development for Zero Hunger in Asia This publication is building on the International Workshop and Regional Expert Consultation on Mountain Agriculture Development and Food Security and Nutrition Governance held by FAO RAP and UIR in November 2018 Beijing in collaboration with partners from national governments national agriculture institutes universities international organizations and international research institutes The publication provides analysis with evidence on how mountain agriculture could contribute to satisfying all four dimensions of food security to transform food systems to be nutrition sensitive climate resilient economically viable and locally adaptable From this food system perspective the priority should be given to focus on specialty mountain product identification e g Future Smart Food production processing marketing and consumption which would effectively expose the potential of mountain agriculture to contribute to Zero Hunger and poverty reduction In addition eight Asian country case studies not only identify context specific challenges within biophysical technical policy socio economic and institutional dimensions

Exhibiting Chinese Art in Asia Chui-fun Selina Ho, 2025-10-01 This volume examines the emerging exhibition complex on Chinese art in early twentieth century China and from the mid 1950s onwards the cultural politics involved in Asia with the exhibitions of traditional and modern Chinese art in Taiwan Japan Hong Kong and Singapore It also scrutinizes the curatorial practices that have influenced the interpretation and display of Chinese art amidst the advance of media technology and heritage engagement in the twenty first century Situated within ongoing debates on global art history the volume is inclusive of multiple geo cultural perspectives and the dynamic practices that relate art tradition or heritage to more universal spatiotemporal art experience and engagement It extends the understanding of exhibitions of Chinese art not only as multiple historical processes culturally and politically negotiated and contested by contending forces and diverse actors in the region but also as creative interventions to engage people around the globe in the present The International Geography Hugh Robert Mill,1899

Guide Book ,1913 Slovakia Great Britain. Foreign Office. Historical Section,1919 In preparation for the peace conference that was expected to follow World War I in the spring of 1917 the British Foreign Office established a special section responsible for preparing background information for use by British delegates to the conference Slovakia is Number 3 in a series of more than 160 studies produced by the section most of which were published after the conclusion of the 1919 Paris Peace Conference Slovakia was at this time part of Hungary which in turn was part of the empire of Austria Hungary The book includes sections on physical and political geography political history social and political conditions and economic conditions It puts the population of Slovakia at some 3 5 million of whom about half were ethnic Slovaks 36 percent Hungarians and 6 percent Germans The economic section of the study focuses on the mineral wealth of the country chiefly iron ore and coal but also gold silver and other nonferrous metals and discusses the need for foreign investment in the mining sector In the concluding remarks the study notes that the Slovak people have been in the position of aliens living and working under a Government to which they have long been passively and of late actively hostile With the breakup of Austria Hungary at the end of World War I Slovakia was separated from Hungary and became part of the newly created state of Czechoslovakia
