A Respectable Woman Kate Chopin, 2024 A Respectable Woman is a short story by Kate Chopin originally published in 1894 KATE CHOPIN 1851 1904 was born in St Louis She had six children during her marriage and it wasn't until after her husband's death in 1882 that she emerged as a writer She published short stories in magazines such as Vogue and The Atlantic gaining appreciation and recognition for her depictions of the American South However she was also criticized for her disregard for social traditions and racial barriers A Respectable Woman Kate Chopin, 2014-04-03 They had entertained a good deal during the winter much of the time had also been passed in New Orleans in various forms of mild dissipation She was looking forward to a period of unbroken rest now and undisturbed tete a tete with her husband when he informed her that Gouvernail was coming up to stay a week or two This was a man she had heard much of but never seen He had been her husband's college friend was now a journalist and in no sense a society man or a man about town which were perhaps some of the reasons she had never met him But she had unconsciously formed an image of him in her mind She pictured him tall slim cynical with eye glasses and his hands in his pockets and she did not like him Gouvernail was slim enough but he wasn't very tall nor very cynical neither did he wear eyeglasses nor carry his hands in his pockets And she rather liked him when he first presented himself But why she liked him she could not explain satisfactorily to herself when she partly attempted to do so She could discover in him none of those brilliant and promising traits which Gaston her husband had often assured her that he possessed On the contrary he sat rather mute and receptive before her chatty eagerness to make him feel at home and in face of Gaston's frank and wordy hospitality His manner was as courteous toward her as the most exacting woman could require but he made no direct appeal to her approval or even esteem A Respectable Woman Susanna Bavin, 2018-06-21 After losing her family in the Great War Nell is grateful to marry Stan Hibbert believing she can recapture a sense of family with him But five years on she is just another back street housewife making every penny do the work of tuppence and performing miracles with scrag end When she discovers that Stan is leading a double life she runs away to make a fresh start Two years later in 1924 Nell has carved out a fulfilling new life for herself and her young children in Manchester where her neighbours believe she is a respectable widow and a talented machinist But the past is hard to run from and Nell must fight to protect the life she has made for herself and her children A Respectable Woman Easterine Kire, 2019-02-28 It took my mother Khonuo exactly forty five years before she could bring herself to talk about the war These powerful words introduce the reader to Easterine Kire's stunning new novel A Respectable Woman In Nagaland the decisive Battle of Kohima has been fought and won by the Allies and people in and around Kohima are trying hard to come to terms with the devastation the loss of home and property and the deaths of their loved ones Forty years after the event Khonuo recreates this moment stitching together her memories bit by painful bit for her young daughter As memory passes from mother to daughter the narrative glides seamlessly into the present a moment in which Nagaland much transformed confronts different realities and challenges Using storytelling traditions so typical of her region Kire leads the reader gently into a world where history and memory meld where through this blurring a young woman comes to understand the legacy of her parents and her land Ana Isabel: A Respectable Girl Antonia Palacios,2016-06-01 This is the first English translation of one of the key works of 20th century Venezuelan fiction Published in 1949 Ana Isabel A Respectable Girl by Antonia Palacios is a classic coming of age story set in Caracas in the 1920s exploring issues of race class and gender and exposing the colonial and patriarchal legacy of the country in the era before urban development and the dependence on an oil economy A modern Latin American classic and the Venezuelan counterpart of Sandra Cisneros The House on Mango Street 1984 Ana Isabel A Respectable Girl broke with the symbolic realist genre in vogue in Latin American narrative works and inaugurated a new form of expression with poetic overtones A Respectable Family Ray Thompson,1880 A Woman's Reform Bill for the Unruly Member ... E.
