Art is violent. To be decisive is violent. To place a chair at a partial angle on the stage destroys every other possible choice, every other option.

Anne Bogart Viewpoints:

The Viewpoints Book Anne Bogart, Tina Landau, 2004-08-01 The Viewpoints is a technique of improvisation that grew out of the postmodern dance world It was first articulated by choreographer Mary Overlie who broke down the two dominant issues performers deal with space and time into six categories Since that time directors Anne Bogart and Tina Landau have expanded her notions and adapted them for actors to function together spontaneously and intuitively and to generate bold theatrical work The Viewpoints are a set of names given to certain principles of movement through time and space they constitute a language for talking about what happens on stage Coupling this with Composition which is the practice of selecting and arranging the separate components of theatrical language into a cohesive work of art provides theatre artists with an important new tool for creating and understanding their art form Primarily intended for the many theatre artists who in the last several years have become intrigued with Viewpoints yet have had no single source to refer to in their investigations It can also be used by anyone with a general interest in collaboration and the creative process whether in art business or daily life Anne Bogart is Artistic Director of the SITI Company which she founded with Japanese director Tadashi Suzuki in 1992 She is the recipient of two OBIE Awards and a Bessie Award and is an associate professor at Columbia University Her recent works include Alice s Adventures Bobrauschenbergamerica Small Lives Big Dreams Marathon Dancing and The Baltimore Waltz Tina Landau noted director and playwright whose original work includes Space Time magazine 10 Best Dream True with composer Ricky Ian Gordon and Floyd Collins with composer Adam Guettel which received the Lucille Lortel Award for Best Musical an OBIE Award and seven Drama Desk nominations She has been an ensemble member of the Steppenwolf Theatre Company since 1997 Anne Bogart Michael Bigelow Dixon, Joel A. Woodruff and Paula Vogel What's the Story Anne Bogart,2014-04-16 Anne Bogart is an award winning theatre maker and a best selling writer of books about theatre art and cultural politics In this her latest collection of essays she explores the story telling impulse and asks how she as a product of postmodernism can reconnect to the primal act of making meaning and telling stories She also asks how theatre practitioners can think of themselves not as staggers of plays but orchestrators of social interactions and participants in an on going dialogue about the future We dream And then occasionally we attempt to share our dreams with others In recounting our dreams we try to construct a narrative We also make stories out of our daytime existence The human brain is a narrative creating machine that takes whatever happens and imposes chronology meaning cause and effect We choose We can choose to relate to our circumstances with bitterness or with openness The stories that we tell determine nothing less than personal destiny From the introduction This compelling new book is characteristically made up of chapters with one word titles Spaciousness Narrative Heat Limits Error Politics Arrest Empathy Opposition Collaboration and Sustenance In addition to dipping into neuroscience performance theory and sociology Bogart also recounts vivid stories from her own life But as neuroscience indicates the event of remembering what happened is in fact the creation of something new Creating Ensemble Margaret Rose Morneau,2003 American Theatre ,2005
