Burma File A Question Of Democracy:

Burma File Soe Myint, 2004 Author's news reports on political history of Burma since 1988 Gender, Poverty and Livelihood in the Eastern Himalayas Sanjoy Hazarika, Reshmi Banerjee, 2017-07-06 The Eastern Himalaya region covers a geographical area that spans five nations and has diverse landscapes a multitude of ethnic groups and a rich variety of flora and fauna The region is relatively poor in terms of GDP and per capita income industrialisation and infrastructure is under developed climate induced disasters are frequent and maternal and infant mortality rates are high Economic constraints combined with restrictive cultural norms create barriers for women in education employment and decision making thus further entrenching unequal gender relations This book explores the ways in which gender sensitive and inclusive policies can be developed to address the basic issues of marginalisation livelihood poverty and vulnerability in the Eastern Himalayas The chapters in the volume touch upon current concerns such as the economic and social challenges faced by women their control over resources questions of patriarchy discrimination gender rights and equity information empowerment and participation and women as agents of change This volume will be useful to researchers and scholars in gender studies sociology and social anthropology development studies economic and human geography politics northeast and Himalayan studies South Asian studies as well as policymakers and those in the development sector and non governmental organisations

Civil Wars of the World Karl DeRouen Jr., Uk Heo, 2007-05-10 This unique two volume reference is the most authoritative up to date resource available for information and data on the most volatile civil wars around the globe since World War II At a time when historians are devoting more and more research to conflicts within nations Civil Wars of the World Major Conflicts since World War II is an invaluable addition to the available resources In two volumes it ranges around the globe to cover the most volatile and deadly civil wars of the past 60 years including the bloody impasses in the Middle East devastating tribal warfare in Africa Cold War fueled conflicts in Eastern Europe and Asia the seemingly unbreakable cycle of rebellion and repression in some regions of Latin America and more Civil Wars of the World moves country by country to describe the causes course and consequences of internal conflicts within each nation Coverage includes the historical background of each country geographic and economic factors descriptions of rebel groups and governments e.g regime type size of military capacity terrorism foreign and or intergovernmental organization IGO intervention UN foreign support for rebels foreign aid and prospects for peace The Burmanization of Myanmar's Muslims Jean A. Berlie, 2008

Insurgency in India's Northeast Jugdep S. Chima, Pahi Saikia, 2023-09-01 Insurgency in India's Northeast provides a systematic analysis of every major secessionist group and insurgency in the region within a unified and original explanatory framework focusing primarily on the postcolonial period This book presents a parsimonious analytic narrative involving a rich sequential account of the historical evolution of Mizo Naga Meitei and ethnic Assamese identities from precolonial to colonial to postcolonial times Avoiding essentialist or primordialist arguments the chapters in the book demonstrate how ethnic sub national identities are dynamic and malleable phenomenon not immutable natural givens In particular it argues that the postcolonial Indian state has attempted to integrate these ethnic sub state national groups into the Indian Union through a combination of democratic accommodation consociationalism and hegemonic violent control strategically designed to encapsulate their evolving sub national identities into the overarching state sponsored Indian nationality Through this book readers will gain a rich understanding of the dynamics of ethnicity nationality and the nation state building process in postcolonial India It will be of interest to researchers in the fields of Asian studies ethnicity nationalism separatism security studies border studies and international relations

Congress,1989 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 The Changing Face of Electoral Politics in Sri Lanka, 1994-2004 Laksiri Jayasuriya,2005 Sri Lanka has been through turbulent times overcome by a devastating civil war yet able to sustain a system of parliamentary government This study recounts a critical decade of electoral politics in Sri Lanka from 1994 to 2004 situated in the context of a militant ethnic conflict that includes four General Elections and a Presidential election The new politics of Sri Lanka evident in this decade is marked by a party system that is increasingly fractured a politics increasingly divided over symbolic cultural issues and the tension inherent in a mixed executive system The coalitional dynamics of this new politics represents a decisive break with the welfarist politics of the post independence period evolved within the Westminster system a legacy of the colonial past In a Postscript Jayasuriya examines the politics of tsunami as it impacts on the critical fault lines of Sri Lankan politics in the North East and South as well as the neo geopolitics This volume will be essential to anyone interested in Sri Lanka's unique experience as a third world country with democratic political processes and instruments for over five decades Transition Politics in Southeast Asia Yang Razali Kassim,2005 The issue of leadership change and political succession continues to resonate in Southeast Asia today nearly a decade after the 1997 Asian financial crisis unleashed tectonic waves throughout the region Amid a wider process of transition that also swept Thailand the Philippines and Singapore two countries Indonesia and Malaysia went through significant transfers of power from one generation to another Suharto's fall in 1998 triggered a series of political successions before throwing up Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono as president Mahathir Mohamad stepped down in 2003 and handed over power to Abdullah Ahmad Badawi but not before a cataclysmic struggle with his once anointed heir apparent Anwar Ibrahim This book looks at the politics of leadership change and succession in Indonesia and Malaysia two countries which experienced the worst political fallouts from the Asian financial crisis A former journalist who has had the advantage of covering these two countries over two decades the author begins with an overview of the political transitions in Southeast Asia The central focus of the book however covers developments in Indonesia and Malaysia through the tumultuous years up to the end of 2004 The book's underlying thesis is that the major leadership changes in Indonesia and Malaysia in recent years have not been and are not taking place in isolation but are in fact part of a long process of change that can be traced to the 1980s Although the two primary political actors Suharto and Mahathir are out of office they remain in terms of impact very much in the consciousness of the successor generation because of the defining roles that they had played and the political legacies that they left behind Transition Politics in Southeast Asia provides a timely narration of the twists and turns of the politics of transition in Indonesia and Malaysia over a span of two decades It also serves as a relevant backdrop to understanding the context and genesis of the political events that currently dominate the news and the landscapes in the two states The result is a sense of contrast in how the two countries grappled with the common quest for effective leadership in the face of the demanding challenge of providing security stability economic development and progress Outlook, 2005 Economic and Political Weekly, 2003-07 Asia in the New Millennium Lai To Lee, Amitav Acharya, 2004 Some 120 participants attended the inaugural Congress of the Asian Political and International Studies Association APISA in Singapore on 28-30 November 2003 Asians from universities and institutes in many countries accounted for about 70 per cent of the participants The First Congress had been two years in the making In November 2001 30 academics from research institutes think tanks and universities introduced the idea of launching an Asian based academic organisation dedicated to the advancement of political and international studies It was the general consensus of the meeting that Asian scholars had been marginalised from the decision making processes of the Western based associations of a similar nature Asian schools of thought had been stifled as a consequence of the American hegemony in the social sciences and that the state of Asian studies in general was underdeveloped In the light of these concerns the APISA was established Drawn from academia and think tanks from across Asia and the Pacific the political and security specialists sociologists historians and economists exchanged ideas and charted new intellectual terrain on the theme Asia in the New Millennium Development Democracy and Security The keynote speaker at the Congress was Dr Surin Pitiswan former Foreign Minister of Thailand and Member of the Commission for Human Security who focused on the need to pursue prominence in Asian scholarship Panels at the APISA Congress transcended disciplinary contours national and regional boundaries and historical confines The panels themes ranged from globalisation identity and community in Asia to electronic government and theory and modernity Offering more regional lenses were panels that discussed understanding and explaining Asia Pacific security and the welfare state in Southeast Asia China and her neighbours Among the many panels that engaged other disciplines were the discussions on state vs market the historical contributions in the panel on defining Southeast Asia as a region and sociological inclinations in the panel on culture politics
