American Ritual Dramas Mary Jo Deegan, 1989-01-20 Deegan attempts a most unlikely synthesis of the cynical theories of Erving Goffman and the community affirming views of Victor Turner Moreover in testing the result in the context of modern American rituals Deegan adds a good measure of Marxist oriented feminism to provide strong structural connections and depth to the analysis The end result of this difficult and rough edged synthesis is not without flaws but it represents a highly creative provocative promising and critical approach to modern American culture All of this makes for fascinating reading and is quite certain to hold the attention of professional sociologists and their students at all levels Choice In a landmark contribution to the sociological literature Mary Jo Deegan examines the underlying social patterns that generate American rituals The first book to employ dramaturgical theory to analyze popular rituals such as football games and the singles bar scene American Ritual Dramas draws upon the pioneering work of Erving Goffman Victor Turner and T R Young to construct a critical framework for examining the social structure of everyday life and its relation to times of celebration or fun The result is a new and important clarification of two aspects of ritual life in America the long term patterns unique to our worldview and material life and the rapid innovation of new rituals that impel modern life In developing her arguments Deegan looks at two major types of ritual participatory rituals and media constructed rituals Through the use of the dramatic metaphor she looks at the roles we play the language we use and the rules we follow in diverse ritual settings ranging from household auctions to the Star Trek television series and the written adventures of The Wizard of Oz Extending the work of earlier theorists Deegan looks for the first time in this context at the issues of sex and class and their relation to bureaucracy and modern uses of time Her critical inquiry reveals that these familiar social rituals and others like them are paradoxically liberating and restricting at the same time The solution lies Deegan concludes in fostering alternative ritual behavior patterns that liberate all members of the community in the democratic experience of playfulness Poetics of the Creative Process Femi Euba, 2005 Based on the author's teaching methods and experience the book presents an examination and analysis of the creative process of playwriting through the insight of the very foundations of drama and theatre the ritual process Using the playwright as a ritual quester it attempts to concretize the playwright's creative experience from the gestation of a dramatic idea through the development of that idea to its expression as a scripted and theatrical expression To give the concept a wider scope parallels and or contrasts are often made with similar creative experiences especially performative The first part of the book visually crystallizes the ritual creative concept in the psychological emanations of the questing playwright the second part locates the concept in the dramatic structure a result of the physical engagement struggle and expression of the playwright Various established dramatic works classical and contemporary are used to illustrate this creative concept Creative Drama in the Lower School Corinne Brown, 1929 The Creative Christ Edward Staples Drown, 1922 The Creative Spirit Stephanie Arnold, 2001 Provides coverage of the wide range of contemporary theatre and includes scripts of five plays August Wilson's Joe Turner's Come and Gone Wakako Yamauchi's And the Soul Shall Dance Tony Kushner's Angels in America Marsha Norman's Getting Out and Sam Shepard's Buried Child The Creative Communion Anita Jacobson-Widding, W. E. A. van Beek, 1990 The Creative Impulse Dennis J. Sporre, 2003 This book presents readers with an overview of the arts in the Western tradition in the contexts of the philosophy religion aesthetic theory economics and politics surrounding them It is an historical introduction to the humanities yielding a basic familiarity with major styles and their implications as well as a sense of the historical development of individual arts disciplines Includes comprehensive and equal treatment of the histories of all the arts as well as a vibrant color illustration program Explores such topics as Greek Classicism and Hellenism Byzantium and the Rise of Islam and The Baroque Age For anyone interested in artwork or the history of art whether in a museum theatre concert hall or on the street Ritualizing Women Lesley A. Northup, 1997 Northup offers a captivating in depth examination of many of the issues regarding women's ritualizing such as the common patterns and images used the construction of sacred space and time the value of narrative and the patterns of politics and social action A fascinating definitive study of post modernism and universality in the context of women's worship Creative Crafts, 1960 Ethnologia Bulgarica, 2006 Christian Institutions Alexander Viets Griswold Allen, 1898 The Creative Vision of the Early Upanishads David Frawley, 1982
