Creativity And Perversion

Gwyn E. Campbell, Judith A. Whitenack

Creativity And Perversion:

Creativity and Perversion Janine Chasseguet-Smirgel, 1985 This is the best single account of the psychoanalysis of creativity pseudo creativity and the perverse mind The author explores art film and literature to show the relations between true creativity and the artful universe of the pervert

Creativity and Perversion Janine Chasseguet-Smirgel, 1984 Reexamines Freud's concept of perversion discusses narcissism fetishism and aestheticism and considers the psychoanalysis of perverse patients

Relational Psychoanalysis Stephen A. Mitchell, Lewis Aron, Adrienne Harris, 1999 Poetic Acts & New Media Tom O'Connor, 2006 Poetic Acts New Media advances the fields of literary and new media studies by clarifying boundaries between competing genres and media through the creation of a new artistic genre media poetry This aesthetic mode of expression becoming seeks to transform mass culture our codes of communication by self consciously acknowledging how textual audio and or visual signs are constructed according to their simulation and not their representation This study draws heavily upon literary media theories that intersect with Gilles Deleuze's philosophy of Sense as a simulated power of sensory transformations Media poetry becomes a complex power of Sense by blending conventional mass media codes with poetic simulations that provide alternative forms of creating meaning Poetic Acts New Media specifically examines the works of several poets that exemplify this multi sensory approach to printed text poetry especially Langston Hughes Tony Medina David Wojahn John Kinsella David Trinidad It also analyzes several contemporary films that embody the multi modal logic of media poetry David Lynch's Mullholland Drive Cameron Crowe's Vanilla Sky Spike Jonze's Being John Malkovich In addition this study interprets two influential primetime TV shows as exemplars of media poetry Twin Peaks and Buffy the Vampire Slayer All media poetry regardless of genre or medium allows readers viewers to envision reality production as a rewriteable and poetic enterprise that can productively remediate any transparent abstraction or common sense realism

Women Artists News, 1987 Zayas and Her Sisters, 2 Gwyn E. Campbell, Judith A. Whitenack, 2001-01-01 A collection of essays on the novelist Mar a de Zayas and other seventeenth century Spanish women writers

The Anal Aesthetic Erika Katz Clowes, 2008 Female Experience Joan Raphael-Leff, 2008 Free Associations, 2004 Small Press Record of Books in Print, 1990 Psychology in Society, 1994 Psychoanalytic Explorations in Music Stuart Feder, Richard L. Karmel, George H. Pollock, 1993 This second series of essays is an enriching companion to its ground breaking predecessor In a truly interdisciplinary endeavor the scope of the explorations is extended by a unique international group of scholars working in both music and psychoanalysis Unlike the earlier series this volume consists entirely of original contributions This volume continues the analytic study of individual composers in articles on Bach and Mozart Robert Schumann Satie and Wagner Wagner receives particular attention in studies of universal fantasies which relate to the music the psychological function of the Leitmotif and Freud's familiarity with Wagner hitherto unexplored Other composers whose works are considered are Schubert and Bartok A core issue in each of the two fields resides in the study of affect What is its nature the means and modes of representation How is affect communicated in both the clinical situation and in the performance of music In a central section of the book On Affect and Music writers in both areas address these questions An opening section concerns itself with the problem of method in applied psychoanalysis with specific reference to music the only such treatment in the literature Also included in this portion of the book is a preliminary report of an ongoing study of contemporary composers based upon analytic interviews The volume concludes with a pair of historical essays one of which considers myths of Freud's relationship to music The second is a study of the musicologist in Freud's early circle and the father of Little Hans Max Graf The present volume then is the second in what promises to become a unique series an intellectual venue for an authentically interdisciplinary study of psychoanalysis and music BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Jane Gallop Seminar Papers Jill Julius Matthews, 1994

Re(con)figuring Psychoanalysis A. Gülerce, 2012-04-05 Leading international scholars present novel dialogues between different psychoanalytic orientations as well as between the particularities of diverse socio cultural and historical contexts in order to offer critical insights which are highly relevant to the current intellectual debates and social praxis

Chicago Psychoanalytic Literature Index, 1984 Desiring the Dead Lisa Downing, 2003 In the 19th century literature shared with the medical and psychological sciences a strategy of examining the most extreme manifestations of human desire While fetishism sadism and masochism still resonate as concepts with critical currency necrophilia has received little attention In this groundbreaking study Lisa Downing rescues necrophilia from the margins of sexual desire relocating it as a symptom and a pervasive fantasy of modern subjectivity Drawing case material from the 19th century French canon the author brings works by Baudelaire and Rachilde into dialogue with foundational European texts of sexology and Psychoanalysis She reads against the grain of traditional Freudian theories of sexuality the conventions of 19th century literary scholarship and feminist critiques of the masculine morbid aesthetic in order to bring to light a model of desire whose problematic nature afflicts existing discourses about sexuality and gender in 19th century France and beyond The Man Who Never Was Janet Sayer, 1996-08-08 Written by specialists from various fields this edited volume is the first systematic investigation of the impact of imperialism on twentieth century Britain The contributors explore different aspects of Britain's imperial experience as the empire weathered the storms of the two world wars was subsequently dismantled and then apparently was gone How widely was the empire's presence felt in British culture and society What was the place of imperial questions in British party politics Was Britain's status as a global power enhanced or underpinned by the existence of its empire What was the relation of Britain's empire to national identities within the United Kingdom The chapters range widely from social attitudes to empire and the place of the colonies in the public imagination to the implications of imperialism for demography trade party politics and political culture government and foreign policy the churches and civil society and the armed forces The volume also addresses the fascinating yet complex question of how after the formal end of empire the colonial past has continued to impinge upon our post colonial present as contributors reflect upon the diverse ways in which the legacies of empire are interpreted and debated in Britain today The Power of Phantasm in Stéphane Mallarmé's Youth Poetry and in the Psychoanalytical Theory of Jacques Lacan Mona Margareta Vinson,2002 The Man who Never was Janet Sayers,1995 A century ago Freud analyzed the ills of patriarchy in the first analytic casebook Sayers s modern tales re examine Freud s theories and present an urgent plea for transforming psychology therapy and case work from its recent focus on the mother to a renewed awareness of the father Artbibliographies Modern ,1990 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971
