A Sagada Reader William Henry Scott, 1988     Ethnography of the Major Ethnolinguistic Groups in the Cordillera Cordillera Schools Group, 2003     Women Farmers and Commercial Ventures Anita Spring, 2000 In this volume case studies reveal that farm women in Africa Asia and Latin America are rapidly becoming more than subsistence producers It explores the societal and domestic changes brought about as women move to positions as wage labourers contract growers and farm owners

When the Spirit Meets the Spirits Julie C. Ma, 2010-04-01 What would happen when the Christian message is introduced to various groups of people How would their contexts and worldviews influence their responses to the message To this age old missiological question the study takes the readers to a narrowed and concerted question What is the effect of Pentecostal messages on animistic people or in other words What are results when the Holy Spirit meets the spirits of the tribal people Julie Ma chose the Kankanaey tribe in the northern Philippines to prove that the Pentecostal type of Christian has invited a very positive response from the Kankanaeys She approaches the matter from historical anthropological and theological perspectives This may challenge the readers to look more closely at the phenomenal Pentecostal movement especially with their potential for mission She also urges her fellow Pentecostals to be more appreciative of their heritage and to fully appropriate it to reach the end of the earth

Christian Missions in the American Empire Arun W. Jones, 2003 At right height of its imperialist phase the United States of America gained control of the Philippines at the beginning of the 20th century Following American troops and government employees into the new American territory were Protestant missionaries who had until then been systematically excluded from Spain's Asian colony This book examines the mission and church work of Filipino and American Episcopalians in northern Luzon during the years of American rule It shows how in the early decades of the mission two contradictory emphases one on civilizing the Filipino and the other on translating the Christian message into the vernacular worked themselves out in the lives of missionaries and local people The work then goes on to look at how both local Christians and missionaries in their own ways utilized Christianity to deal with new political economic and social realities as these emerged in the second two decades of American rule

Philosophical Approaches to Social Reality Rainier R. A. Ibana, 1994

Incomplete Conquests Stephanie Joy Mawson, 2023-07-15 In Incomplete Conquests Stephanie Joy Mawson uncovers the limitations of Spanish empire in the Philippines unearthing histories of resistance flight evasion conflict and warfare from across the breadth of the Philippine archipelago during the seventeenth century The Spanish colonization of the Philippines that began in 1565 has long been seen as heralding a new era of globalization drawing together a multiethnic world of merchants soldiers sailors and missionaries Colonists sent reports back to Madrid boasting of the extraordinary number of souls converted to Christianity and the number of people paying tribute to the Spanish Crown Such claims constructed an imagined imperial sovereignty and were not accompanied by effective consolidation of colonial control in many of the regions where conversion and tribute collection were imposed Incomplete Conquests foregrounds the experiences of indigenous Chinese and Moro communities and their responses to colonial agents weaving together stories that take into account the rich cultural and environmental diversity of this island world Great Scott! William Henry Scott,2006 Annual Report Episcopal Church.
