Situating Cindy Sherman Sarah Patricia Evans,2004 The Sound of Things to Come Trace Reddell,2018-10-16 A groundbreaking approach to sound in sci fi films offers new ways of construing both sonic innovation and science fiction cinema Including original readings of classics like The Day the Earth Stood Still 2001 A Space Odyssey Star Wars and Blade Runner The Sound of Things to Come delivers a comprehensive history of sound in science fiction cinema Approaching movies as sound objects that combine cinematic apparatus and consciousness Trace Reddell presents a new theory of sonic innovation in the science fiction film Reddell assembles a staggering array of movies from sixty years of film history including classics blockbusters B movies and documentaries from the United States Britain France Germany Japan and the Soviet Union all in service to his powerful conception of sound making as a speculative activity in its own right Reddell recasts debates about noise and music while arguing that sound in the science fiction film provides a medium for alien unknown and posthuman sound objects that transform what and how we hear Avoiding genre criticism s tendency to obsess over utopias The Sound of Things to Come draws on film theory sound studies and philosophies of technology to advance conversations about the avant garde while also opening up opportunities to examine cinematic sounds beyond the screen Radical Form, Political Intent Robert Patrick Kinsman,2007 This study argues that countercinema describes a fluid potentially global practice which integrates radical formal intervention with political intent in historically specific contexts This practice both limits and expands past and present applications of the term It includes more than the list of formal characteristics with which Peter Wollen accurately characterizes Godard s countercinema in 1972 but limits countercinema to those films which are formally radical politically minded and historically specific rather than any film or practice which is non patriarchal non capitalist and or non Hollywood The Laser Disc Newsletter ,1998 TLA Video & DVD Guide 2004 David Bleiler,2014-04-08 The TLA Film Video and DVD Guide 2004 is the absolutely indispensable guide to worthwhile cinema It includes over 10 000 entries on the best of film and video that a real film lover might actually want to see Unlike some of the other mass market guides that tend to be clogged with unenlightening entries on even more unenlightening films TLA focuses on independent foreign as well as the best of Hollywood to bring the cineaste an opinionated guide that is both fun to read and easy to use The guide includes Reviews of more than 10 000 entries Four detailed indexes by star director country of origin and theme More than 300 photos throughout A listing of all the major film awards of the past quarter century as well as TLA Bests and recommended films A comprehensive selection of cinema from over 50 countries From one of the finest names in video retailing and a growing rental chain comes the latest edition of one of the most respected film video and DVD guides The TLA Film Video and DVD Guide is perfect for anyone with an eclectic taste in cinema TLA Video & DVD Guide 2005 David Bleiler,2014-04-08 The TLA Video and DVD Guide 2005 is the absolutely indispensable guide to worthwhile cinema It includes over 10 000 entries on the best of film and video that a real film lover might actually want to

Noir Affect Christopher Breu, Elizabeth A. Hatmaker, 2020-06-02 Noir Affect proposes a new understanding of noir as defined by negative affect This new understanding emphasizes that noir is first and foremost an affective disposition rather than a specific cycle of films or novels associated with a given time period or national tradition Instead the essays in Noir Affect trace noir's negativity as it manifests in different national contexts from the United States to Mexico France and Japan and in a range of different media including films novels video games and manga The forms of affect associated with noir are resolutely negative These are narratives centered on loss sadness rage shame guilt regret anxiety humiliation resentment resistance and refusal Moreover noir often asks us to identify with those on the losing end of cultural narratives especially the criminal the lost the compromised the haunted the unlucky the cast aside and the erotically perverse including those whose greatest erotic attachment is to death Drawing on contemporary work in affect theory while also re-orienting some of its core assumptions to address the resolutely negative affects narrated by noir Noir Affect is invested in thinking through the material bodily social and political economic impact of the various forms noir affect takes If much affect theory asks us to consider affect as a space of possibility and becoming Noir Affect asks us to consider affect as also a site of repetition dissolution redundancy unmaking and decay It also asks us to consider the way in which the affective dimensions of noir enable the staging of various forms of social antagonism including those associated with racial gendered sexual and economic inequality Featuring an Afterword by the celebrated noir scholar Paula Rabinowitz and essays by an array of leading scholars Noir Affect aims to fundamentally re-orient our understanding of noir Contributors Alexander Dunst Sean Grattan Peter Hitchcock Justus Nieland Andrew Pepper Ignacio Sanchez Prado Brian Rejack Pamela Thoma Kirin Wachter Grene

Cruisy, Sleepy, Melancholy Nicholas de Villiers, 2022-09-27 A brilliant approach to the queerness of one of Taiwan's greatest auteurs A critical figure in queer Sinophone cinema and the first director ever commissioned to create a film for the permanent collection of the Louvre Tsai Ming-liang is a major force in Taiwan cinema and global moving image art Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy offers a fascinating systematic method for analyzing the queerness of Tsai's films Nicholas de Villiers argues that Tsai expands and revises the notion of queerness by engaging with the sexuality of characters who are migrants tourists diasporic or otherwise displaced Through their lack of fixed identities these characters offer a clear challenge to the binary division between heterosexuality and homosexuality as well as the Orientalist binary division of Asia versus the West Ultimately de Villiers explores how Tsai s films help us understand queerness in terms of spatial temporal and sexual disorientation Conceiving of Tsai s cinema as an intertextual network Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy makes an important addition to scholarly work on Tsai in English It draws on extensive interviews with the director while also offering a complete reappraisal of Tsai s body of work Contributing to queer film theory and the aesthetics of displacement Cruisy Sleepy Melancholy reveals striking connections between sexuality space and cinema
