Dewey and the Aesthetic Unconscious Bethany Henning, 2022-03-30 John Dewey was the most celebrated and publicly engaged American philosopher in the twentieth century His naturalistic theory of experience generated new approaches to education and democracy and re grounded philosophy's search for truth in the needs of life as it is shared and lived However interpretations of Dewey after the linguistic turn have either obscured or rejected the considerable role that he gives to the non discursive dimension of experience In Dewey and the Aesthetic Unconscious The Vital Depths of Experience Bethany Henning argues that much classical American philosophy implicitly recognizes an unconscious dimension of mind that is distinct from Freud's theory Although the unconscious that emerges within American thought has never been treated systematically it found its fullest expression in Dewey's work particularly in his theory of aesthetic experience This dimension of mind illuminates the continuity between nature and culture and it provides us with an account of why artwork is often successful at communicating meanings from the ecological and intimate dimensions of life where discourse often fails If the relationship between the human and the organic world has emerged as the definitive question of twenty first century life then the aesthetic unconscious stands as a resource for our ecological and intimate well being

In Defense of Faith David Brog, 2010-06-15 Religious faith is under assault In books and movies and on television militant secular critics attack religion with a renewed vigor These new atheists repeat a two part mantra that religious faith is hopelessly irrational and that those possessed of such faith are responsible for the hatred and bloodshed that has plagued humanity. Abandon religion, they urge us, and the world will at last live in peace. In In Defense of Faith, examines this proposition in the context of Western civilization and the Judeo-Christian tradition and asserts that far from encouraging hatred and violence, the Judeo-Christian tradition has easily been the most effective curb upon the dark defects of human nature and our best tool in the struggle for humanity. From the Christian activists who fought to stop the genocide of Indians in South America and their ethnic cleansing in North America to the abolition of African slavery on both sides of the Atlantic and on to modern human rights activists from Martin Luther King Jr to the rock star Bono, In Defense of Faith rebuts the fashionable arguments against religion and presents the strong and lasting record of the Judeo-Christian idea. History has not been as kind to the atheist model: every time it is put to the test, we have reverted to the most base, violent instincts of our selfish genes.
